BUILDING UNFIT FOR SCHOOL

State Director Says Lowell Vocational School "Old and Nondescript"

Recommends New Building in Lengthy Report to School Board

Committee to Ask City Council for $60,000 to Complete 1920 Work

The Lowell Boys' Vocational school is housed in an "old, nondescript building, poorly lighted and badly arranged for good instruction purposes," according to a report which has just been submitted to the school committee by H. O. Small, director of the division of vocational education of the state board of education. Mr. Small has made a personal survey of the local school and in his report recommends the erection of a new building, and the installation of new and additional equipment.

The report was but one of several features of last evening's meeting of the school committee, originally scheduled for Oct. 26. The committee voted to request the city council to appropriate an additional $60,000 to place out the department's funds for the rest of the year.

Action on the petitions of teachers and janitors for salary increases was deferred until the next meeting, Nov. 30, when delegations representing both classes of employees will be invited to appear before the committee.

The committee voted to sanction the opening of special music classes in the public schools after school hours, to be conducted under the direction of Miss Inez Field Damon, representing Lowell Community Service.

FARM PRODUCTS PRICES

Nation-wide Selling Organizations to Fix Them Predicted

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—The establishment of "nation-wide" selling organizations which shall fix the price of farm products, if the farmer does not receive "the same pay for the same hours' work that others receive," was predicted today by Sherman J. Lowell of Fredonia, N. Y. Mr. Lowell, who is master of the National Grange, Farmers of Husbandry, speaking at the opening session of the Grange's annual convention, which will continue for 10 days.

"We are willing to have a fair understanding of values," Mr. Lowell said, "the farmers receiving the same pay for the same hours' work that others receive, no more, no less, but we feel that this is the last call. If no attention is paid to this now by bankers, manufacturers, railroads and labor organizations, and if the government continues to use its great power to import raw material free of duty to reduce costs, then the grange will be the first to help organize nation-wide selling organizations which shall fix the price of farm products."

"There is no threat in this; we will have been driven to it in self-defense to preserve our agriculture."

N. E. POTATO CROP SUFFERED SHRINKAGE

WAKEFIELD, Mass., Nov. 10.—The New England potato crop suffered a shrinkage of about six per cent, and was reduced in quality as the result of rot during October, according to the report today by V. A. Sanders, field agent of the bureau of crop estimates of the United States department of agriculture. The crop is now estimated at 31,950,000 bushels, compared with the five year average of 34,775,000 bushels, and 35,080,000 in 1919.

The net available yield in the Aroostook region is estimated at 150 bushels per acre, with production at 15,750,000 bushels, a loss of nearly a million bushels in October. The total Maine crop is reported reduced to 21,240,000 bushels from 23,135,000 estimated last month and a five year average of 23,309,000.

ITALY SENDS ULTIMATUM

Count Sforza Lays Down Definite Minimum Claims to Jugo Slavs

Terms Presented to Delegation in Controversy Over Adriatic Question

RAPALLO, Italy, Nov. 9.—(By the Associated Press)—In what may be considered an ultimatum sent to the Yugoslav delegation here regarding the pending negotiations between Italy and Yugoslavia over the Adriatic question, Count Sforza, the Italian minister, as head of the Italian delegation, laid down Italy's definite minimum claims. These, the document stated, were:

The Istrian frontier, including the Julian Alps, Nevoso mountain and the railway from Trieste to St. Peter Junction.

Second: Territorial contiguity between Trieste and Italy.

Third: Trieste to be a state entirely independent, without any control by the league of nations.

Fourth: Annexation of the islands of Lussino, Piccolo and Cherso to Italy.

Fifth: Annexation of Zara to Italy.

Sixth: Annexation of several of the Yugoslav islands to Italy for strategic reasons.

Seventh: Guarantees for the protection of the Italian minorities in Dalmatia remaining under Serbian rule.

Eighth: Demilitarization of some of the Dalmatian positions which will be allotted to Serbia.

It is stated the Italian minimum terms were presented on the request of the Yugoslav delegation. The Yugoslavs were said to consider the Italian terms excessive, but they reserved their reply until the claims had been further examined.

HONOR NAVAL OFFICERS

First Announcement of Awards for Distinguished Service During War

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—First announcement of awards to naval officers for distinguished service during the war was made at the Boston navy yard today.

Rear Admiral Herbert O. Dunn, commanding the first naval district, was the only recipient here of the Distinguished Service Medal. The citation which accompanied the honor said it was given for "exceptionally meritorious service in a duty of great responsibility as commanding officer of the naval station at Ponta Delgada, Azores." The Distinguished Service Cross was awarded eleven other officers, among them Rear Admiral S. S. Robinson, commander of the Boston yard, who commanded the submarine force which operated in the war zone.

The capital of Germany, now known as Berlin, comprises eight cities, 59 towns and 27 rural districts with a population of 4,000,000.

MANILA, Nov. 9.—Forty-eight persons are believed to have perished when the coastwise steamer San Brazile was struck by a typhoon last Wednesday en route to Puerto Bello, Leyte Island, South Philippines, according to a survivor reaching here today. Fifteen survivors reached Cebu. There were sixty-four people aboard the vessel.

RESUME PROBE OF SHIP BOARD

J. F. Richardson Says Individuals of No Standing or Experience Favored

Allocated U. S. Shipping Board Vessels for Operation, He Charges

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Individuals and corporations of no financial standing and no experience in maritime affairs have been allocated United States shipping board vessels for operation, J. F. Richardson testified today when the Walsh congressional committee resumed its investigation of shipping board affairs.

Richardson, who as secretary and statistician to the committee has been making investigation, declared that irresponsible individuals were favored while established steamship companies complained of inability to secure any tonnage whatever.

Such allocation, he asserted, had been made at will by a director of operation under the board, who commanded vessels from established transport lines and allocated them to private companies. Ships, he said, had been turned over to companies in which relatives of men connected with the shipping board were financially interested.

He added that those who had purchased vessels outright from the board had complained they could not compete with companies financed and equipped by the shipping board. Others, he said, felt they had cause of dissatisfaction when the board took back and reallocated vessels turned over to them.

TELLS OF INVESTIGATION OF BARTLEY'S DEATH

SKOWHEGAN, Me., Nov. 10.—His investigation of the murder of Nelson W. Bartley was described in detail today by Sheriff John A. Moores at the trial of John A. Burke. It began on Oct. 18, 1918, when he went to Jackman upon receiving word the body had just been found, three days after the murder, and included an interview which he and County Attorney Edward E. Merrill had with Burke.

After examining the surroundings of the cave in which the body was found, he and the county attorney called upon Burke, who was in bed with a bullet wound in the leg. According to Burke's account of the happenings of Wednesday night when he met Bartley by appointment at the Moose River house, they went to Burke's residence, where they discussed business matters as he wanted a settlement with Bartley.

Burke told the sheriff that Bartley held a mortgage on his house and automobile and that he held Bartley's notes. He explained the notes by telling of a liquor deal in which he and Bartley had purchased 240 cases of liquor in Quebec, Burke taking $3000, which he had in his possession as collector of taxes.

This liquor was smuggled across the line by Canadian farmers, Burke said, and stored in a barn owned by Bartley. Burke claimed the liquor was stolen and he was unable as a result to make good his shortage to the town. Bartley and William J. Murtha, his bondman as tax collector, made good the shortage, Bartley giving Burke the two notes to cover his share of the liquor.

A new bit of evidence was that Burke told Sheriff Moores the reason they did not make an effort of the two transactions was that the mortgage on his house was held jointly by Bartley and Murtha. He claimed Bartley shot him during an argument in front of the house, and ran away.

Nothing new was brought out in a long cross-examination by Attorney William R. Tattangall.

All Business to Cease for Minute in Chicago Tomorrow

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—A proclamation was issued by the mayor today calling upon citizens to observe Armistice day tomorrow. At 11 o'clock in the morning the city will pay one minute's silent tribute to American soldiers who died in the war.

At a signal from traffic policemen all vehicles and street cars will stop moving. Pedestrians will halt and face the east. Buglers scattered about the downtown district will advance to the middle of street corners and sound Taps.

The moment will be preceded by a din of factory whistles, bells, sirens and horns.

CLAIMS MEMORY LOST

Superior Court Witness Testifies Regarding Injuries Resulting From Auto Crash

Mrs. Mary Wilkins of Wilmington testified in the superior court today that she has suffered from loss of memory and hallucinations as the result of injuries received in the alleged collision of an automobile in which she was riding with a truck belonging to Fred Ingham of Lowell. The alleged accident happened Dec. 3, 1919, on the state road near Wameet station.

Mrs. Wilkins, her husband, G. R. Wilkins, and Miss Alice Pawthrop, a domestic in the Wilkins home, are suing Mr. Ingham for compensation for alleged injuries received when the two cars collided.

Mrs. Wilkins said on the stand, in reply to questions by plaintiff's counsel, Albert Howard, that she had been unable to control her nerves since the accident and that she suffered pain in her back and at the base of her brain. She asserted that she sometimes lost the use of her lower limbs. A short time ago she had to step in the middle of the street in Manchester, N. H., and

SAYS SITUATION IN IRELAND IS BETTER

LONDON, Nov. 10.—(By The Associated Press).—Premier David Lloyd George in his address at the lord mayor's banquet at the Guild hall last night, discussed briefly and pointedly various problems with which the government is dealing.

He plunged immediately into foreign affairs and appealed for patience and faith in the world settlement, declaring that the highest wisdom demanded that prejudices and dislikes be kept well under control if Europe is to be saved from becoming a welter of raging hatreds.

Ireland Well in Hand

With regard to Germany, he declared himself personally pleased with the proposals of that country for the liquidation of her obligations. Coincidentally, the chancellor of the exchequer, Austen Chamberlain, announced in the house of commons, that Germany had placed a large amount in bonds in the hands of the reparations commission.

The premier spoke optimistically of Ireland, intimating that the situation there was well in hand.

Referring to questions between Germany and the allies, Mr. Lloyd George said that the real test of German sincerity was disarmament, and he added, "the report I have to give on that subject is very satisfactory."

"The German army is rapidly being reduced to 100,000. There are still too many rifles at large in Germany, but they are a greater menace to Germany's internal peace than to her neighbors."

BIG ADVANCE FOR BOLSHEVIKI

Penetration of the Crimean Peninsula Claimed in Official Statement

Fighting for Possession of Wrangel's Fortified Positions in Perekop Region

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Penetration of the Crimean peninsula is claimed in the Russian soviet official statement of Tuesday, received here today by wireless.

The statement says: "In the Perekop region we are fighting for possession of the enemy's fortified positions."

"Further east, during fighting, we crossed the river Sivatch into the Crimean peninsula and debouched at Kerdzhahania."

PARIS, Nov. 10.—Reports from disinterested military observers at Sebastopol state that the recent retreat of Gen. Wrangel's army into the Crimea was accomplished with notable success. It was said at the French foreign office today.

The morale of the troops, the reports declared, remained extremely high, and Gen. Wrangel was reported as confident that with proper material he could reorganize the forces and maintain his positions without great difficulty.

It was the overwhelming number of the soviet troops appearing on the south Russian front which precipitated his retreat, the general asserted.

ARMISTICE DAY TOMORROW

No Formal Municipal Observance of the Day in This City

High School Exercises in Keith's Theatre—American Legion Ball Tonight

In marked contrast with the excitement and two days' celebration which marked the occasion two years ago, Lowell will observe Armistice day tomorrow, Nov. 11, in a quiet and passive manner. There will be no formal municipal observance, although some of the neighboring cities have planned more or less extensive celebrations of the second anniversary of the cessation of hostilities.

Mayor Perry D. Thompson, who has been enjoying a vacation for the past week, had not returned to his office at city hall today but was expected back in town this evening. Other than accepting the invitation of the Lowell post of the American Legion to attend its armistice ball in Associate hall this evening, the municipal council has made no preparations to observe the occasion.

The American Legion ball this evening, a formal program of exercises at Keith's theatre by students of the high school tomorrow and informal exercises will be the chief features of the local observance. The legion ball will be held in Associate hall and indications point to the most successful social affair yet held by the local post. State officers of the organization have been invited to attend and a most attractive program has been arranged by the committee in charge. One of the features will be the reading of an Armistice day proclamation from the state commander of the legion, James T. Duane. The local post will hold open house all day tomorrow.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

The third and fourth periods in the high school session tomorrow morning will be omitted and the entire school will assemble in Keith's theatre at 11:30 o'clock for armistice day exercises. Appropriate exercises will be carried out with School Committee member Pearson as the principal speaker. With the entire student body of the school gathered together, the cheer leaders of the football organization will take the stage and lead the crowd in football cheers and new songs for the football game at Haverhill next Saturday.

The program of exercises is as follows:

HERRMANN TO ADDRESS MINORS

Cincinnati Nat. League Team Owner to Ask Endorsement of Lasker Plan

Will Attempt to Offset Favorable Impression Created by Ban Johnson

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 10.—With the opening shots fired in the scramble to win the support of the National Association of Minor leagues, August Herrmann, owner of the Cincinnati Nationals and a leader in the organization of the new 12-club league, is to address the convention of minor leaguers here today in an appeal for endorsement of the Lasker plan for baseball reorganization.

He will attempt to offset the substantial impression created among the minor league leaders yesterday by Ban Johnson, president of the American league, and George W. Miller, the American league attorney, who urged the minors to appoint a committee of three to meet a similar committee from the major leagues in a final effort to avert a baseball war. Johnson, in opposing the Lasker plan, told the minor leaguers that the management of baseball should remain in the hands of men who have devoted their lives to the sport, instead of being turned over to men outside the game.

While action the minor leagues will take in the major league dispute remains problematical, but it is expected they will consider both plans in executive session and then refuse to take sides in the issue, leaving the threatened war to the major leagues for settlement.

"I do not see how we can be expected to make sides in this situation," said Mr.

Report Charges Graft and Corruption in Emergency Fleet Corporation

Padding Payrolls, Rake-offs by Contractors and Other Irregularities Alleged

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (By Associated Press.)—Corruption of employees and officials of the Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, graft in buying supplies for and in repairing government-owned merchant ships, and the use of political or other influence in obtaining contracts for ship construction and the allocation of completed vessels to operating companies are among a number of charges made in a report submitted to the house committee on shipping board operations by A. M. Fish and J. F. Richardson, ex-employees of the board.

Chairman Benson of the shipping board refused last night to discuss the report, declaring that any statement might have to make would be made to the house committee which is continuing its investigation of the board's operations.

The report covers more than 100 printed pages and deals exhaustively with many phases of shipping board operations as observed by the committee's investigators over a period of more than a year.

Charges Waste of Funds

In presenting the report, Mr. Richardson said it was designed to deal only with problems which could be solved wholly by the shipping board itself and "left untouched" if general subjects in connection with the board's operations. Among these were summarized the organization of the board, technical errors in the construction program, German-American deals, assumption of diplomatic functions by board officials, enforcement of the New Merchant Marine act and avasions of the selective service act.

Taking up in detail seven general phases of the board's activities, the report charged gross waste of government funds, improperly drawn contracts which cost the government large sums and failure of the various divisions of the board to co-operate efficiently and the almost complete failure of some of the divisions to function properly.

Padding of payrolls by firms repairing shipping board vessels, ownership by companies operating government vessels, of stock in companies furnishing supplies to these craft at prices ranging anywhere from 40 to 50 per cent above wholesale costs, wholesale theft of supplies and equipment from ships and the loss of millions of dollars through improperly secured loans made to contractors building government vessels, also were charged.

Security Bonds Worthless

The investigators allege that in some cases the Fleet corporation loaned money to contractors and accepted as security bonds issued by companies incorporated by the contractors, "which bonds have since been found to be worthless." The charges also were made that in many cases shipbuilding plants with materials "which are going concerns are turned back to contractors as salvage propositions and the contractors thus reap large profits at the expense of the Fleet corporation."

Another allegation in the report was that many firms building construction contracts inaugurated Liberty bond selling crusades in their plants and charged to ship construction 10 per cent of the money thus secured as the cost for selling the bonds. It was further charged that in some cases the Fleet corporation authorized contractors to take from "their appropriated funds" sufficient funds to buy Liberty bonds and that subsequently in some cases these bonds were sold or hypothecated "for plant purposes."

"They (the contractors) then put in a claim against the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation for the losses thus incurred," the report said.

Going into the matter of salvaged shipbuilding plants, uncompleted hulls and material and stores, the report alleged that it was "asserted by persons in position to know" that the sale of the "millions of dollars" worth of ma-

"However," said the report, "the question seems to be one of maladministration, rather than one of financial conditions, as far as limited returns from the sale of these materials is concerned."

The report said that "the Harde company" was trying to purchase under a blanket contract all supplies and stores of the Fleet corporation and charged that one of the officials of this company was taking an adviser to the shipping board's cancellation and claims board."

PARTIAL ECLIPSE OF THE SUN TODAY

The sun pulled off one of its grandest plays this morning, but in Lowell there was scarcely an audience and no applause.

The almanacs had the entertainment billed in this way:

Partial eclipse of the sun, visible in New England, starting time, 5:59 a. m. Maximum of eclipse, 10:13 a. m. Fall of the curtain, 11:31 a. m.

These figures relate to Lowell. In northern New England and Canada the performance was better worth seeing. There was more of it. People farther west did not see so much. The eclipse went on just the same but on the Pacific coast it started before sunrise.

The star performer evidently tried to do his best to provide the people of Lowell with an interesting spectacle. During the early morning hours the surface of the sun had been hidden behind a bank of clouds. About ten minutes before the show was to open, however, the veil of mist lifted and bright sunlight flooded the air.

There was, of course, little to see during the early stages of the eclipse. Gradually, though, the dark blot could be seen climbing over the lustrous surface and at 10:13 a. m. 35 per cent of the disc was obscured.

School children found the eclipse most interesting. It was made the subject of a talk to the youngsters by many of the teachers. Some of the children had been warned in advance to come to school provided with pieces of smoked glass. As the magnitude of the eclipse was greatest about the time when school was out, out of doors for their morning recess, a good opportunity was afforded them for looking at the sun with the strange plate that seemed to have been taken out of it.

In many stores and other places of business there was a scurrying about for pieces of glass, and matches, candles, gas jets and burning paper were called into use to properly smoke it. Numerous burned fingers, and smudged cheeks and noses were retained as souvenirs of the event. A few people saved themselves the bother of smoking glass by pinching pin holes in sheets of paper to hold before the eyes.

On the streets the eclipse attracted little attention. It was only occasionally that someone was seen with enough interest in what was happening to stop and try to get a glimpse of the big partially darkened disk.

The eclipse was one of a series that astronomers first began to take note of in 1778. It has been happening every 18 years since. The earliest eclipses were not much to look at, but with each recurrence the observation has become greater.

Does Your Husband Come Home Tired, Nervous, Irritable?

Physician Says Thousands Of Men Are Breaking Down Simply Because Their Blood Lacks Iron—Tells How To Convince A Husband That He Needs

NUXATED IRON

To Help Make Red Blood, Strength and Endurance

"Simply because his blood lacks iron, many an American husband who ought to be feeling young, full of health, vigor and energy and in a position to shower his family with every comfort and luxury is actually struggling to make ends meet—a disappointed and discouraged 'old man' who will probably end up in a nervous breakdown or be carried off by his first illness," says Dr. H. B. Vail, formerly physician in the Baltimore Hospital and a Medical Examiner.

"Because man, in the rush and tear of modern life has so little time to think about his blood's condition and is often so slow to admit any weakness, the sign that his blood may be low in iron is often first detected by the watchful, loving eyes of his wife. Does your husband come home pale and lagged out and too tired to do anything of any account? Does he complain about being overworked—the lack of opportunity today—some other fellow's luck? Does he find fault with the food, the home or the youngsters' behavior? Does he seem unable to concentrate on any one thing? Does he get tired and make big money as you and be contentedly expected?"

"Does it may well be true that the blood lacks iron, for the iron with plenty of iron in their blood are the healthy, strong ones with the keen minds and the physical energy and stamina to overcome all obstacles—make their own opportunities—lead force their way to big positions, power and wealth. My advice to the wife who believes her husband capable of big things in this world is to see that he builds up his iron in his blood and for this purpose I have found nothing better than organic iron—Nuxated Iron. By enriching the blood, creating new blood cells, it strengthens the nerves, rebuilds weakened tissues, and helps itself new energy and endurance in the whole system."

Nuxated Iron is used by over 4,000,000 people annually—used and endorsed by former United States Senators and Members of Congress—and in many cases to my knowledge, increased the strength and energy and endurance of two-down, nervous people in two weeks' time."

"If your husband asks for proof that lack of iron makes him nervous, weak and lagged out, tell him that you can probably convince him with the following test: Have him see how long he can work or how far he can walk without becoming tired. Now have him take two tablets of Nuxated Iron three times daily after meals for two weeks. Then let him test his strength and see how much he has gained."

"Nuxated Iron," Standard Iron, which is recommended above is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older iron pills or tablets it is easily assimilated and does not irritate the stomach, make the bowels constipated or cause the user to feel the effects of a laxative. Nuxated Iron is absorbed into the blood and creates new blood cells, thus building up the blood, creating new blood cells, it strengthens the nerves, rebuilds weakened tissues, and helps itself new energy and endurance in the whole system."

AMUSEMENT NOTES

By The Theatre's Own Press Agents

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Final performances of "Humoresque" rated as one of the greatest photoplays of the year, will be given at the Merrimack Square theatre this evening. Tomorrow afternoon the usual mid-weekly change of program will take place.

The two big features for Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be "A Beggar in Purple," an exceptionally ap- pealing photoplay based on the novel by Andrew Lang, and "A Fall House," a comedy production featuring popular Bryant Washburn.

It is the story of a man who stole his wife and her maid. He was a poor old man, but he loved his wife and his maid. He was a poor old man, but he loved his wife and his maid. He was a poor old man, but he loved his wife and his maid.

THE STRAND

A picture program that has all of the pleasing elements that go in the making of a satisfying offering is being given at The Strand. The feature is "The Spirit of St. Louis," a picture from the stage success by Avery Hopwood and Channing Pollock in which Lindbergh scored his big triumph. The other picture feature is "Mullane Traverses in 'The Spirit of St. Louis'." An added feature is the concert by the wonderful American repertory group, the "Mullane Traverses." This program will be given for the last time today. See it.

OPERA HOUSE

Miss Marguerite Elsie, exceptional talent is once again reflected this week in her treatment of the role of "Macquie," the charming, little French girl in "The Wonderful Thing of Tullin Trumble." Her delightful melodrama which is being given such a clever presentation by the Lowell

135 Acres of Land for Girl Scouts

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Ceremonies formally announcing the gift of a 135-acre tract of land located near Briarcliffe, N. Y., by ex-Senator and Mrs. William A. Clark to the Girl Scouts were planned for today at Girl Scout headquarters. Mr. and Mrs. Clark made the gift in memory of their daughter, Andrea, who was a Girl Scout. A spring on the tract, which will be used as a camping site, will be made into a fountain and an image of Andrea will represent her giving water to the campers.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

Musterole does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Gently massage Musterole in with the finger-tips. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

Resinol

"My skin was even worse than yours, and I, too, had tried so many remedies I was discouraged. But Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap relieved the soreness almost immediately, and I was amazed when the blotches began to disappear and the pores to clear. In a short time my skin was perfectly healthy. Do give the Resinol treatment a trial." At all druggists.

YONCALLA, ORE., STRICTLY A WOMAN'S TOWN

YONCALLA, Ore., Nov. 10.—Yoncalla for one week has been strictly a woman's town. In spirit and in fact women have been the town's leaders since a week ago when they elected a woman mayor and a woman to every other place in the city government.

The women say the election has permanently disposed of two old adages to the effect that a woman cannot keep a secret and that women cannot successfully play politics.

From house to house the women carried on their political campaign secretly prior to election. It had been "whispered," they said, that the men intended to let the incumbents hold over without bother of a new ticket. The men did not bother about the city election. Result:

Mayor, Mrs. Mary Burt, native Oregonian, graduate of Pacific college, class of 1873, who has lived here 43 years, republican.

Councilwoman: Mrs. Jennie R. Lasswell, wife of the retiring mayor and prominent clubwoman; Mrs. Bernice Wilson, pioneer school teacher and wife of postmaster; Mrs. Nettie Hannan, wife of a retired capitalist.

The women have no definite plans for promoting the welfare of the town, the mayor-elect said today.

"We intend to study conditions," she said, "and do all in our power to give the city a good efficient government. As the worst, we cannot do much worse than the men have done." Mayor Jesse B. Lasswell, who has lost his job, said his cohorts were taken off their guard, but he has promised the women his help.

LINEN SHOWER

Miss May McLaughlin, Popular Employee of the Massachusetts Mills, Honored by Her Co-Workers

Miss May McLaughlin, a popular employee of the cloth room of the Massachusetts Mills, who on Nov. 17 will be united in marriage to Mr. Walter Murray, the ceremony to be performed at St. Patrick's church, was tendered a linen shower in the quarters of the Massachusetts Mills Women's Social and Industrial club last evening. The affair was attended by over 100 women employees of the mill and all spent a most enjoyable evening.

In the course of the evening Miss McLaughlin was showered with valuable pieces of linen and later an entertainment program of high merit was given, a feature of which was a mock marriage, those participating being Miss Alice Brennan, clergyman; Miss Margaret Laffey, bride; Miss Anna Ryan, bridegroom; Miss Anna Leonard, best man; Miss Rosella McCabe, bridesmaid; Miss Lillian Languay, Miss Helen O'Connor, Miss Katherine Harrigan and Miss Marion McCabe, flower girls. Other numbers included Spanish dances by Miss Helen Normandy; piano selections, Miss Gladys Cronin; vocal selections, Miss Laura Garrison and Miss Helen Lynch. Refreshments were served and the party broke up at a seasonable hour, all present extending their best wishes to the bride-to-be. Those responsible for the success of the affair were Miss May Owens, Miss Irene Leavitt and Miss Ann Taylor, the latter general director of the club.

AUTHOR'S RECITAL

Edward Everett Adams gave an author's recital at which he read a number of original poems in Odd Fellows temple Monday evening. A large party of invited guests was present. Mr. Adams' selections dealt largely with Nature both in her rugged and more appealing aspects. Some of the poems that gave the most pleasure were entitled "The Hills of the Highlands," "Ode to Nature," "A Journey to the Capstone of Mount Monadnock," "Sunset at Intervale" and "Yearnings." The evening's program opened with a "Festal March" played on the violin and piano by Mr. Marion Adams and Mr. Adams. There was later music by Mr. Marion Adams and Charles E. Tallme.

Good Judgment After Eating

Giving the Stomach the Alkaline Effect by a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet

You cannot, as a rule, say in advance that this, that or the other food will cause indigestion. Experience has taught most people that even mince pies its acidity at times while at others a glass of milk raises hobs with the stomach. One good rule to follow is the preventative measure of taking one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. You thus avoid gasiness, sour stomach, heartburn and such distresses due to indigestion. Or, if you are already suffering from indigestion, these tablets also help to digest the food by giving the stomach the alkaline effect to offset acidity; they relieve the distress when the mince pie "sits" in the stomach more than a pinch for your digestive powers. Get a 6-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and note how nicely they seem to act in the stomach when it feels all upset.—Adv.

LOWELL PEOPLE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Undertaker and Mrs. Amedeo Archambault, their daughter, Lea, and Mrs. Archambault's sister, Miss Elodie Mineau had a narrow escape from death Sunday when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by another car on the state highway at a point between Albany and Schenectady, N. Y. Miss Mineau had four ribs fractured, while Mr. Archambault received a cut over the right eye, which necessitated the taking of eight stitches.

He also received severe injuries to his legs. Mrs. Archambault received a cut on the hip and bruises about the body, while Miss Archambault suffered bruises about the legs and body. Charles A. Smith, of the Packard Motor Car company, of Boston, who was operating the machine, received injuries to his hands and legs. All were treated at the Ellis hospital in Schenectady.

The Lowell party were on their way to Onondaga N. Y., and were riding in a machine owned by the Packard Motor company, of Boston. When a point was reached on the state highway in Schenectady, about four miles from Albany, a Columbia automobile operated by James J. Della of Schenectady, was seen skidding in the road. Mr. Smith swung his car to the right into the ditch and brought his motor to a stop machine was wrecked.

and it was then that the other machine crashed into the auto occupied by the Lowell people. All were thrown out of the car, while the automobile was badly smashed. The Schenectady Jitch and brought his motor to a stop machine was wrecked.

MR. TREMBLAY HONORED
Piorre Tremblay, superintendent of St. Joseph's cemetery, was agreeably surprised at his home in Chelmsford last evening on the occasion of his 44th birthday. After being showered with congratulations and best wishes, he entertained a handsome oak smoking cabinet. Entertainment numbers were given and refreshments were served.

CAREFUL STUDY OF TRI-PARTITE AGREEMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(By the Associated Press)—State department officers are giving careful study to the tri-partite agreement concluded between Great Britain, France and Italy for the creation of "spheres of influence" in Turkey, but it was stated yesterday that any objections that the American government might have to the agreement have not yet reached the formative stage.

Because of the unsettled nature of American foreign policies due to the approaching change of administration officials intimated that it was doubtful whether, even should the provisions of the agreement be found objectionable to the policy of this administration, the United States would find it expedient to forward a protest to the signatory nations.

GIRL KILLS HERSELF IN FRONT OF LOVER

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Hanging a Mexican dagger into her heart while talking to her former fiance, Miss T. Saunders, aged 25 years, of Laredo, Tex., ended her life on the Mezzanine floor of a downtown hotel here yesterday. If H. Garver, of this city, declared that an engagement between the two had recently been broken off, but declined to tell why. The young woman left no explanation of her act.

Hotel officials said the young woman registered Nov. 1 and appeared well-to-do.

150,000 Thrown Out of Work by Slump

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Nearly 150,000 members of the United Hebrew Trades in New York state have been thrown out of work in the last three weeks of "steady business recession," Morris Feinstein, associate secretary of the organization, announced here today. Of these 90,000 are tailors and cloth and dress goods makers, mostly in Greater New York.

Argentina Enthusiastic Over League

PARIS, Nov. 10.—Argentina is ready to do her utmost to contribute to the success of the League of Nations. Honorio Pueyrredon, foreign minister, has informed a representative of the newspaper El Clarin of this city. "I am going to Geneva to attend the meeting of the league assembly," he said, "with the greatest enthusiasm. I believe in the success of the league if each nation brings to it good will. And that seems easier than the pessimists imagine. Nationalism, properly understood, is not incompatible with healthy internationalism."

Parish House Dynamited

STRUTHERS, Ohio, Nov. 10.—The parish house of Holy Trinity Czech-Slovak Catholic church was dynamited early today, the porch being blown off. No one was injured. The house is occupied by Rev. John Frena, recently installed priest, against whose appointment a protest was made by members of the church who for a time maintained an armed guard to prevent his taking possession. The explosion today broke all the windows in one side of the parish house and one side of the church, and also broke windows in a hall across the street.

Seek to Free Schooner Trapped in Ice

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 10.—Nome, Alaska, residents are planning to send a snow sled relief expedition across the frozen Arctic to the trading schooner Polar Bear, which is trapped in the ice off the Siberian coast, 225 miles from Nome, according to reports received here. Rein-deer will pull the sleds.

Strike Spreading in Spain

SALAMANCA, Spain, Nov. 10.—The railwaymen of this district here decided to strike in sympathy with other strikers in this city. Work was at a complete standstill today, all trades having joined in the movement. With few exceptions all stores closed.

OBJECT TO K. OF C. GIFT TO LEGION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Use of the $5,000,000 offered by the Knights of Columbus to the American Legion for a national memorial building in Washington would constitute a "moral breach of trust and an act of injustice" to many suffering soldiers, Marvin G. Sperry, national president of the Private Soldiers and Sailors' Legion, declared in an open letter yesterday to Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty.

The money offered was contributed during the war for the "aid and relief of our soldiers," Mr. Sperry asserted, and its use for the construction of a "great marble palace at Washington" would be an "indefensible diversion from the purpose for which it was intended."

American Legion officials meet in New York today to consider acceptance of the offer.

CHELMSFORD NEWS

A meeting of the farmers of Chelmsford was held last evening in the town hall under the auspices of the Middlesex County Farm bureau. There was a large attendance and the presiding officer was Karl M. Perkins, the Chelmsford representative of the bureau. The speakers were Fred D. Griggs, who spoke on the American Farm Bureau federation and its program; Gilbert Wright, whose address was on the raising of alfalfa, and Sumner Gage of Marlboro, whose address was on the founding of a farmers' exchange in Chelmsford.

PLAN INDOOR RACE

Halifax Plans to Build by Popular Subscription Floating Vessel to Race in Next Year's Regatta

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 10.—Announcement was made today of plans to build by popular subscription a fishing vessel to race in next year's international schooner regatta off Halifax harbor. Native Nova Scotians will design and build the vessel, which will be used as a regular fishing schooner, but which will be designed particularly with next year's race in view.

Favorite places for swarms of bees are holes in cliffs, rocks and banks or hollow trees.

SURE, HARMLESS WAY

TO REMOVE HAIR ROOTS (New, Wonderful, Quick Method)

You who are annoyed with embarrassing growths of superfluous hair have waited long for something that would do more than merely take off the surface hair temporarily—something that would really remove the hair roots. And now—at last—your wish is realized!

The new patenting process is far different from the hair-removing cream, depilatory or other methods, because it actually removes the hair entire, roots and all—before your very eyes, quickly, harmlessly! Get a stick of pelactine from your druggist, follow the simple directions, and you will be surprised and pleased beyond words. It has no odor, no irritating element, and is so non-injurious a child could safely eat it. It leaves the skin so soft, smooth, hairless that not the least sign of your former trouble remains.—Adv.

Strop, Strop, Strop

Claims Memory Lost

she could not move. She said she could not sleep and that she had hallucinations that food that she was putting on the table was unfit to eat. It was good food, but she thought it was potato parings and apple cores.

The witness said that Alice Fawthorpe had been epileptic before the accident, but that since the attacks had been more frequent. She said that Miss Fawthorpe had had five epileptic attacks in one month since the collision.

Dr. Andrew Buzzell of Wilmington testified that he was called to attend Mrs. Wilkins after the accident. He had seen her almost every day on the street previous to the accident and that she seemed to be in good health. When called to treat her, he found Mrs. Wilkins in bed complaining of pain and in a very nervous condition. The witness said that he had been called to treat Miss Fawthorpe before the accident as the result of her having fallen down stairs during an epileptic attack.

Dr. Sumner of Lowell testified to being called to the scene of the accident. He said he found Mrs. Wilkins much excited and nervous, but that he found no evidence of particular injuries. He said that Miss Fawthorpe had a bruise on her head about one-half the size of a walnut and that she complained of a pain in her leg. No bones were broken.

On December 15, witness testified, he went with Dr. Mahoney to make an examination of Mrs. Wilkins. He found her very nervous, but saw no signs of bruises. Miss Fawthorpe was also examined and found to have bruises on her head and leg.

Dr. Herbert M. Larrabee of Tewksbury, a specialist on nervous and mental diseases, testified that he had had the opinion that Mrs. Wilkins' present condition was likely to last two or three years.

Cross-examined by Frank E. Dunbar, counsel for the defense, the witness denied that Mrs. Wilkins had always been a "neurasthenic."

The deposition of Alice Fawthorpe, now in England, was read to the jury by Mr. Howard.

Leopold L. Kneeland, a former of Tewksbury, called by the defense, testified that Mr. Ingham had just driven away from his home when the alleged accident happened. He said that the lights on the car were burning at the time.

THE GOSPEL OF WORK

St. Augustine wrote that he had heard men confess to every sin that he had ever heard of or imagined, except the violation of the commandment against covetousness. If he could get back to the world today, and people were forced to tell the truth most of them would have to own up that the one thing that they covet most above all others is a soft job with short hours of toil and big pay.

There is one army that does not need any recruiting sergeants. It is the army of "slackers."

It is held up to children of tender years that the most desirable destiny in life is to side-step work as much as possible—to aim to somehow get included among those who ride leisurely about in big touring cars and spend gorgeous evenings at social functions of the elite. If work they must, perforce, find parents hold up before them the desirability of its being at tasks at which white waists or shirts can be worn, and the hands kept daintily manicured whether the worker be man or woman.

There is the path of an ancient and solemn gospel written in the words, "In the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread." Try as we will, there is no side-stepping that, so far as the human race is concerned. All that we can wear or use to make us comfortable is the product of labor. Without toil, man would step off of this planet with suddenness.

The product of labor may be conceived of as going into a great reservoir from which we must all draw to supply our needs. The fewer streams of toil that are flowing into this great storage basin, the thinner will be the streams that are flowing out. The less the sum total of production, the less will be the share in it for each one of us. The man or woman who does not produce—and it should be remembered that brains as well as brawn are necessary in production—are enemies of their kind. Those who would limit the hours of labor beyond what is reasonable would restrict the possibilities of health and happiness for their neighbors.

Why not change our tactics and begin to preach and practice the gospel of the essential dignity and importance of work—hard work—work that brings the tired muscle and the tired brain that make rest a joy, and that produces something? It would be unfair to disparage manual work as compared with physical. Both are necessary in production and should be duly rewarded; but society has too many who try to live without any useful or legitimate occupation.

PRECOCIOUS BOYS

The boy who entered as a student at Columbia university at the age of 12 has distinguished himself in company, consisting of a long line of wonderful boys who became renowned men.

Victor Hugo, the Frenchman, and William Cullen Bryant, the American poet, wrote good verse when they were 10.

James Fenimore Cooper, author of the Leather Stocking Tales, entered Yale at 13, while Thomas Babington Macaulay, British writer and statesman, is said to have read and translated Greek when he was only 5, an age at which every-day children go to kindergarten.

Youthful genius generally has made good in later life, except in instances in which genius has been shadowed by physical or mental infirmities. Thomas Chatterton, the wonder-child of eighteenth century England, died at 15, a suicide, leaving behind a collection of unpublished poems of matchless power and beauty.

However, few of the men whose achievements have moved writers to remark on them, were remarkable boys. Thomas Edison was an ordinary boy in whom no one detected signs of genius. The early energies of Abraham Lincoln were devoted altogether to conquering a wretched environment. General Grant was described as "slow" at school and was not much of a success until after 30.

It is wonderful how many boys and men carry around the latent elements of greatness that would never be heard of but for some great emergency. We have not much faith in the precocious boy. In most cases his mind is injured irrevocably by attempting things which are beyond his ability. The boy of average talent who plays, usually attains as much as the more brilliant but less industrious and energetic.

PULL UP ON ARITHMETIC

One of the speakers who addressed the Association of New England high school commercial teachers in Boston, recently agreed more complete work in arithmetic in the last year at high school.

Possibly he referred only to the pupils who take up the commercial courses, but his advice on this point might well be applied to all classes in the high school.

It has not been customary to teach any arithmetic in the day high school except in the commercial classes. As we understand it, the pupils of the other classes finish the study of arithmetic in the grammar schools. This explains why so many of them have but a very superficial knowledge of the more important rules of this essential branch.

There is a very large proportion of high school graduates who if asked the percentage of winning of a ball team that wins fifty out of eighty games, would answer 625 showing gross ignorance of the simple rule by which the answer is found.

The speaker also advised greater attention to the study of arithmetic, which is better work in English. There is no doubt that there is need for more thoroughness in English and this can come only from systematic instruction with plenty of practice in writing exercises; but such exercises are of little value unless they are carefully corrected and afterwards revised by the pupil in accordance with the improvements suggested.

PICTURE CENSORSHIP

The state committee on motion pictures is out with a severe denunciation of the purpose of a meeting held in New York, October 21 and 22, ostensibly as a meeting of the mayors of New England cities for deliberate action, whereas the alleged purpose was to foist upon the New England people through publicity of these meetings, the method of the National Board of Review, which is a system of reviewing with lack of any legal authority.

The committee charges that the National Board of Review, financed by the motion picture industry, presumes to direct the regulation of motion pictures in Massachusetts and that the chief of the licensing board in the city of Boston apparently executes the plans of the National Board. This rupture of peaceful relations between the state committee of Massachusetts and the National Board of Review is likely to renew the effort to impose strict state censorship upon all motion picture exhibitions.

HOLY CROSS DRIVE

The drive for $1,000,000 for Holy Cross college is one that should meet with success. Holy Cross is an old institution that has worked along without any outside support, because its teachers, the learned Jesuits, receive no pay for their labors. The college now needs several new buildings in order to be able to accommodate the demand for admission and it is to be hoped that its financial needs will be fully provided for through the efforts of its thousands of graduates and those who are in sympathy with its work in the cause of sound Christian education.

THE VOTE ON BEER

Like the anti-alien land law of California, the 2.75 beer referendum in Massachusetts will have no effect because it contravenes the Volstead amendment. The land law is said to be in violation of an existing treaty and if so, will stand merely as an expression of public sentiment by the people of California. The vote in favor of 2.75 beer and light wines may be urged in favor of a more liberal interpretation of the prohibition amendment now a part of the constitution.

HAZING

Strict orders have been put in force against hazing at Annapolis Naval academy. It is time to stop the silly and dangerous practices carried on in such institutions. In some colleges the hazing foolishness is almost as dangerous as football. The students presume that acts of violence that would call for a sentence of six months or a year to jail are excusable and harmless when classed under the head of hazing. It is time that delusion were removed.

Now that we have read of the "dim ethereal light" and "sage-poem hangings" of Brother Salomon's newly furnished office in city hall, we shall not be surprised to hear that the commissioner has risen to the altitude of his surroundings and become a poet laureate of the administration.

Since leather is so cheap it ought to be possible to provide a medal of fitting size and appropriateness for the man who invented the scheme for making us hunt for hidden places for getting back eight cents on our car tickets.

With some of the vaunted teeth of the Volstead law completely knocked out by court decisions and others wobbling, congress has the job cut out for it for speedily supplying some new molars, and jaw muscles to go with them, to grip the multiplying numbers of howlers of the constitution.

Debs, asserting that he would be ashamed to be at large under "the present chaotic conditions of society," might think that there are a lot of people, remembering his delinquent acts who would be ashamed if he were out of prison.

Persons who show lack of respect for the flag in lesser ways probably could not wish to be classed with the Quincey man who was caught shining shoes with Old Glory, but do they hang anywhere else?

Whenever said that most people are "only a month ahead of the almshouse," certainly did not have Lowell in mind with his $1,000,000 in the savings bank.

Now it is announced that ready-made clothing prices are to be "cut 10 to 50 per cent." Which one of the percentages do you think the reductions will stick the closest to?

School teachers are being advised to "roll-up" as a means of holding the interest of their pupils. This would add fuel to the educators' educational frills.

There are to be only 50 democrats in the next Massachusetts house of representatives. Considerably fewer just men than that might once have saved a city.

Has any candidate for the school committee the courage to come out with the announcement that he will vote against and refuse to take part in any plan for hazing?

Kicks are being registered in Boston against crowded street cars. Here, the trouble seems to be that the crowds persist in remaining outside of the cars.

Cheer up—even if you can't find out how the women voted—there is the biggest tobacco crop in history this year, and after all "women are only women, but a good cigar is a smoke."

If you didn't have an ancestor in the Mayflower, you had one in a new one and at vessel, the ark.

Finer is lower—wherefore not bread?

Honor Armistice day—put out the flag.

SEEN AND HEARD

Takes but the word of the supreme court to release spirits from bondage.

Wonder, if lifting the embargo on transportation of booze in bond will affect the "moonshine" traffic.

Tough on the fellow who has been using the "can't find a tenement" as an excuse for postponing the wedding day to read about that new company's plan to build 100 houses here.

Tough on the Cop

A policeman walking along the side of the canal was crying.

"What's the matter?" he queried.

The youngster pointed to a hat which was bobbing up and down in the middle of the canal.

"My brother," he sobbed.

In a flash the courageous policeman plunged into the water. He came up, but with the hat only.

"Can't find him," he gasped. "Where was he standing when he fell in?"

"He didn't fall in," the boy blurted out, "he is over there. I was going to tell you he threw my hat into the water, but you wouldn't let me finish."

Making Memories

Every day, says Roger W. Babson, we are making memories for ourselves in the future. We make them today and lay them on the shelf of our brains to be taken down, dusted, and hauled over at some later day. Often they are lovely and pleasant; sometimes they make our hearts sick.

Some of us are fortunate enough to be able to shut out the unpleasant memories and to see them no more. This is perhaps best, because it is better to live in our to-day than in our yesterday. But in spite of our wishes, we find that sometimes memories will come off the shelf and face us.

Therefore, it behooves us to make today such memories as will be pleasant for tomorrow; memories that we shall be proud of and not ashamed of; memories that will bring comfort and not heartache. The memories of tomorrow we are always making today.

Buggy vs. Auto

The old-fashioned buggy has challenged the motor. This good old vehicle seeks to postpone the day of extinction by entering into the debate with the motor on its respective advantages. In a discussion now going on in a forum paper, old folks are taking sides with the buggy while the young folks are for the auto. The elders speak from a wealth of sweet experience, consisting of long moonlight buggy rides taken on quiet country roads in the days when their young lives were golden, or gilded, with romance. They were slow rides, old Dobbin just loping along, as if he realized that the loving pair behind him had a lot to say to each other and wished to postpone as long as possible the moments of parting. Folks could hold hands in buggies, the old-timers say, for, as they point out, it was unnecessary to hold the reins, Dobbin knowing all the dear old roads of hallowed memory. He was a great help to romance in those times. Said as it is by tender memories, the passing buggy seems to have the better of the argument among the folks near or over 40, but some day, perhaps, the automobile will be as tenderly defended against the encroaching airplane.

Lumber

We men are but crude scraps of lumber. We are strewn in the yard without number. And we owe all we are to the schooling of dressing and trimming and tooling. The saw seizes on us and rips us. The blaine axe sears us and chips us. The nail, the mallet, the plane, the calender and beat us and knock us.

The brace and the bit join to bore us. The knife and the plane to smooth us. The vise has the virtue to grasp us. The file has the fortune to rasp us.

The plane seizes on us to smooth us. The veneer and the varnish to soothe us.

We are grooved, we are matched, we are leveled. We are squared, we are gauged, we are leveled.

And it, after all of the labor, we are made of some use to our neighbor.

Well, then, by one carpenter's ruling, we ought to be glad of our tooling.

—EDMUND VANCE COOKE.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

In police circles the story is told that a man who was making a little moonshine at his home, got a tip from a friend over the telephone that two prohibition officers were coming to the place in front of his house and likely to make a raid on him. He looked out and sure enough there were two men looking towards his house. He rushed to the cellar and with all possible haste dumped 30 gallons of mash and some real moonshine into the sewer. Then he got his little still into the back yard and drove it back way to hide it at the home of a friend. Imagine his disgust when he found that the two supposed officers were merely waiting for a car. But the man who gave the alarm thought he recognized them as limbs of the law. This does a guilty conscience often lead men to do queer things.

It was cheerless and cold a few evenings ago as I walked along the platform of the Middlesex street railroad station. On one of the baggage trucks, with a coat collar turned up, and with a face that was startling for its hardness, sat a foreigner. He was such a figure of woe as to make me stop to say, "Hello, Bill, feeling bad?" "Ken" was the answer, and then after a moment came the added words, "cold turkey." Some people might have thought the poor fellow out of his head. "Cold turkey," he said, and then he drove forward, meaning that they have been cut off from their supply of drug. There were abundant evidences that my new acquaintance was telling the truth. There was the pallid, haggard countenance, of which I have spoken; there was the restlessness of hands and feet that to move was an agony and that yet must be kept moving; there were the pin point pupils of the eyes; the sneezing, and intermittent grapping and yawning. A dose of morphine would be a very desirable companion, but he is deserving of sympathy. People who have studied the disease of morphine say that there are few forms of suffering more terrible than that of drug addicts shut off from their normal drug. As I became better acquainted with the stranger, he told me what from circumstantial evidence I believe to be true, that he is an actor. He said that he had come to Lowell to meet a man who was supposed to be coming from Montreal with a supply of "junk." "Junk" is another name for morphine. As he talked, the sufferer took out the hypodermic "junk" that he carried with him and fingered it nervously. He expressed the belief that he could get back to Boston and could locate some "junk," which is still another name for morphine, when a train came along to Elmhurst, slowly and with evident difficulty, aboard.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton.

CHIMP RESCUE

There's this about it, if Chip Chip-munk hadn't been so over-stuffed with buckwheat, he might have been able to wiggle out of his prison. But there Nick and Nancy hadn't an idea where Chip was, and they hunted and hunted. Even the buckwheat field had failed to reveal his whereabouts, for men had come with wagons and piled all the bundles of cut wheat on them and hauled them to the barn.

What to do next? There didn't seem to be a place left to look, and the twins were just about to return sadly to the Meadow Grove school and tell Mr. Scribble Scratch that the little chipmunk boy was nowhere to be found, when the Magical Mushroom came a running. "Here," he panted, handing them a note written on a plantain leaf. "It's from the Fairy Queen, and she says to save Chip. He's in trouble in Farmer Smith's barn."

Poor Chip, so he was! The rattly thing in the field that had knives for teeth, wasn't to be compared to the enormous monster in the barnyard, which he spied the moment he arrived on the wagon, a monster that had chains and straps for muscles, that ate coal, and breathed black smoke; a monster that shook and growled ferociously, and ate buckwheat by the bundle too. Chip could see it all where he was stuck fast. Just then a man picked up Chip's bundle. "Oh! Oh! Help, help!" squeaked the little truant shivering with fright.

"Yes, yes! We're coming," called Nick, for the twins arrived at that very minute and heard Chip squeal. The man laughed when Nick reached in his hand and pulled out poor shivering Chip. "That was a close squeak for the little fellow," he said kindly. "Don't you mean a loud squeak?" smiled Nick, putting Chip into his pocket. "I guess he was scared." (Copyright, 1920, N.E.A.)

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

Red Cross and American Legion Will Open Drives Here Tomorrow

The 1920 Red Cross roll call or membership campaign will open here tomorrow, the second anniversary of the signing of the armistice. The local organization has been completed and everything is in readiness for a week's intensive drive.

Unlike past years, the campaign will be without luncheon sessions and many of the other features of wartime drives. The campaign workers will be given specific tasks and when they have finished them, they will report results. The 1920 drive will be a model of simplicity.

Combined with the Red Cross roll call will be a membership campaign of the local post of the American Legion. The legion and the Red Cross people are aiding each other in the drives and this co-operation is expected to bring substantial results.

Membership in the Red Cross costs $1 per year and makes the contributor a link in the great work of reconstruction which the organization is now carrying on.

Buttons, posters and literature are available for team workers at the Red Cross office, 31 Merrimack street, and memberships will also be received here. Fred F. Hayward is general campaign manager and George R. Chandler, treasurer. Returns may be made in the latter by team workers at the Union National bank.

Prominent Western Man Praises Tanlac

G. W. Logan, Peabody, Kan.

"Tanlac has completely restored my health and I feel finer than in years," was the straightforward statement made recently by Mr. George W. Logan of Peabody, Kansas, one of the most prominent stock dealers in the middle west.

"It has not only made a new man of me but I have actually gained thirty-five pounds in weight and feel as well as I ever did in my life. I am telling all of my friends about Tanlac but they can see for themselves what it has done in my case."

"When I began taking Tanlac I was in an awfully run-down condition. I was away off in weight, felt weak and nervous all of the time and couldn't take any interest in my work or anything else. My main trouble was indigestion. Nothing seemed to agree with me. At times I would have dizzy spells and at other times my back would ache so bad that I could hardly get up and down in my chair. This is just the condition I was in when I started to take this medicine. It took just six bottles to make a well man of me? I now have a fine appetite, everything tastes good and my digestion is perfect."

"My wife was also troubled with indigestion at times and it relieved her the same way. You may publish my statement wherever you like and if anyone doubts it, just let them to see me."

Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Greens Drug Store, Merrimack square, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative and by the leading druggist in every town.—Adv.

REPORT 3 AMERICANS KILLED IN RUSSIA

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Capt. Emmet Kilpatrick, representative of the American Red Cross in South Russia, and two nurses were brutally killed during a Bolshevik cavalry raid on Salkovo station, says a Sebastopol despatch to Reuter, limited, last night.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Reports reached the state department yesterday that Capt. Emmet Kilpatrick of the American Red Cross and G. A. Atchey of the Mennonite Relief society, had been captured in the Soviet advance in southern Russia, but no mention was made of the possible death of either one. It was believed that the recent assertion of the Soviet government that an "American mission" headed by "General Morel" had been captured by their troops was founded on the capture of Kilpatrick.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 10.—An official canvass in the eighth congressional district gives Lon A. Scott, republican, a majority of 638 votes and the victory over his democratic opponent, Gordon Browning. This fixes the political alignment of the Tennessee delegation in the next house of representatives, on the face of the returns, as five republicans and five democrats, a net republican gain of three members.

Nearly 16,000 of the 40,000 disabled veterans of the United States army are now taking vocational and educational trainings.

$200,000 WORTH OF LIQUOR SEIZED

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 10.—Prohibition agents launched an offensive in New Jersey yesterday, arresting 35 men already under indictment for violation of the Volstead act and removing $200,000 worth of liquor from warehouses at Perth Amboy to Newark.

More than a score of agents continued searching for 45 additional liquor dealers and bartenders under indictment. It was announced that 20 indictments were returned Saturday by the federal grand jury.

Those captured in the raid were put aboard a special trolley headed for Trenton to be arraigned.

There were 118 barrels, each containing 50 gallons, and 967 cases in the liquor removed from warehouses. It had been there since its seizure last September.

DRACUT NEWS
A general invitation is given to all farmers and farm women of Dracut to attend the organization meeting of the recently reorganized Middlesex county farm bureau to be held in the Dracut Grange hall this evening at 8 o'clock. Leaders in the farm bureau movement will be present to tell of the plans and the program of the new organization. In similar meetings last week more than 200 members were enrolled in 10 towns in the county. These meetings will be held each night for the next two weeks. Among the leaders who will speak at these meetings are Charles A. Wright of Billerica, president of the farm bureau, Albert R. Jenks of West Acton, its secretary, and Fred D. Griggs, secretary of the Massachusetts farm bureau federation. The local leader is Frank D. Bryant.

One potato so large that it will serve as a meal for 15 persons has been produced in California.

CAPT. A. R. MILLS
CROSSED ATLANTIC
1068 TIMES!

NEW YORK.—This man, Captain Arthur R. Mills, has crossed the Atlantic 1068 times! He has been with the American line for 41 years, during which time his cross-Atlantic service has resulted in his steaming more than 3,000,000 miles, a distance equal to 123 times around the world. His vessels have carried more than half a million people—and without the loss of a single life! He was given the Cross of the Legion of Honor by France in 1917 for towing the disabled cruiser Jeanne d'Arc 400 miles to the Azores. Captain Mills, who has just retired, has sailed for England to take a holiday rest in the country of his birth.

TEWKSBURY NEWS
Everybody interested is invited to a meeting under the auspices of the Middlesex county farm bureau to be held in the Tewksbury town hall this evening at 8 o'clock for the organization of a local branch. The plans and purposes of the organization will be explained by representative leaders of the county and at a later meeting a definite organization will be perfected. The meeting is one of a series which is being held in the county. At meetings in 10 towns last week three hundred members joined. Among the speakers at these organization meetings are Charles A. Wright of Billerica, president of the county farm bureau, Albert R. Jenks of West Acton, the county secretary and Fred D. Griggs, secretary of the Massachusetts farm bureau federation. The local leader who is in charge of the meeting is Frank Carter.

DEPENDENT UPON IT 20 YEARS

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Been
This Woman's Safeguard
All That Time.

Omaha, Neb.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for over twenty years for female troubles and it has helped me very much. I have also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash with good results. I always have a bottle of Vegetable Compound in the house as it is a good remedy in time of need. You can publish my testimonial as every statement I have made is perfectly true."—Mrs. J. O. Exquist, 2424 S. 20th Street, Omaha, Nebraska.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health. Women who are suffering from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headache, nervousness or "the blues" should not drag along from day to day without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

FOR FIELD ARTILLERY

Enlistments for Eleventh Field Artillery at Camp Grant Open For Periods of Three Years.
Notice has been received at the local army recruiting station that enlistments for the 11th Field Artillery at Camp Grant, Illinois, are now open for periods of three years. The 11th Field Artillery is a motorized regiment with six howitzers and over 500 enlisted men. Interest in the regiment is centered in athletics to a great extent and the men have teams in football, baseball and track sports in season. The outfit is now under orders to proceed to Hawaii. Because men with less than six months more to serve and men with dependents must be transferred there are many vacancies at present, particularly for handmen and for men with previous military service of the proper calibre to make non-commissioned officers. Men enlisting for this branch must arrive in Camp Grant not later than 6 p. m. Nov. 15. The following men were accepted at the station yesterday for the 36th Infantry at Camp Devens: Samuel Staw Kozlek, 15 Cummings street; James A. Kozlek, 183 Cornhill street; Alfred Nerbovine, 53 French street.

A special drive is being made by all recruiting stations in this district for men to join the 36th Infantry at Camp Devens, Georgia. This is a regiment characterized by "no-guard, no fatigue, and no regrets." It is a motor demobilization unit for negro soldiers. It is provided with a 90,000-acre camp with good bathing eight months in the year. The camp is just 30 minutes' ride from Columbus, which has a 35,000 population. The 36th Infantry at Camp Devens is also offering special inducements for recruits. The recreational activities for this unit include baseball, football, basketball, pool and billiards, moving pictures and swimming. Complete courses in all studies and trades are given and a 490 bus is paid for a vehicle yard at the station. In the case of Lowell men to be stationed at Camp Devens it means frequent visits to this city. Those interested should inquire at the army recruiting station in Central street.

TEXTILE SCHOOL FRESHMEN INITIATED

People who happened to be in the vicinity of Merrimack square about 9 o'clock last evening were more or less startled to see a dozen young men, clad in pajamas, wearing handkerchiefs over their mouths and linked together like inmates of a correctional institution. Surrounding them and gawking them to sing were 100 or more other young men.

The first contingent in pajamas were Textile school freshmen, who were being initiated by the upper classmen. The grotesque parade made its way from the Textile school in Moody street down Merrimack street to the square and here the freshmen were ordered to climb Page's clock, make a speech and then were allowed to go. The minute freedom was granted they peeled off their pajamas which had been put on over their regular clothing.

Deny Sen. Penrose Has Had Relapse

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—Published reports that United States Senator Boies Penrose, who has been ill for a year, has had a relapse, were denied today by his physicians who said there was no material change in the senator's condition. Besides his other ailments the senator is suffering from neuritis which at times gives him much pain. The fact that he is not seeing visitors at this time is believed to have given rise to reports that his condition is worse. He is preparing to return to the senate after an absence since last November. He has leased a large apartment in Washington.

AN IMPORTANT RULING

Men Discharged From Draft
Camps Because of Physical
Defects Not Entitled to Aid

(Special to the Sun.)

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Men who were discharged from draft camps, because of physical defects, are not entitled to the benefits of state or military aid. This, in substance, is the ruling of Attorney General J. Weston Allen in response to a request from Richard R. Flynn, commissioner of state aid and pensions. A large number of applications for aid, now pending before the commission, must be dismissed as a result of the ruling.

In his opinion the attorney general first takes up the matter of state aid. After quoting the law governing state aid payments, he says:

"The act provides, first, that the applicant must be receiving a pension or compensation for disability incurred in such service; second, that he must have been mustered into such service while an inhabitant of a city or town in the commonwealth and actually residing therein; and third, must have been honorably discharged from such service by reason of illness or disability incurred therein."

"The first and second conditions are purely questions of fact; the third condition contains two elements—not only must the applicant have been honorably discharged, but this must have been by reason of illness or disability incurred in the service. If all of these conditions do not exist, then the individual's right to state aid fails and this irrespective of the fact that a discharge from the draft is regarded by the adjutant general of the army as a discharge from military service."

"Consequently, I am of opinion that your inquiry, directed toward the right to state aid by one who has received a discharge from the draft, having been rejected because of existing physical defects, must be answered in the negative."

With respect to applications for military aid, the attorney general says: "Whatever may be the interpretation as to whether or not a 'discharge from the draft' is comprehended within the words 'honorably discharged,' within the meaning of the law, the real question is whether such a man is not entitled to military aid because such physical disqualification was not incurred in the service."

"I am of the opinion that one who was drafted, inducted and summoned to a training camp, and there, upon examination, was found to be physically unfit for service by reason of illness or disability then existing, and not incurred in the service, is not entitled to military aid." HOYT.

ARMISTICE AND
ST. MARTIN'S DAY

Tomorrow, November 11, besides being Armistice day, is also St. Martin's day. Not only indicating the time, two years ago, when the last shot was fired in Europe and guns were dropped and the United States relaxed from its determined war efforts, the day carries with it many home-sweet-home memories handed down from the middle ages.

They say that if Martinmas is bright and sunny or if the trees still retain their leaves on that day, then there will be a very cold and severe winter. If there is a frost before Martinmas the winter will be mild and cozy, and if the leaves are still on the trees when she will stick in the mud at Christmas.

So, according to all this tomorrow will be pretty much of a weather-vane. Another superstition is that if a farmer has not finished his field work at Martinmas will bury his wife before the winter is over. All of us, however, should be optimists on this point. Some of us have no wives to bury. St. Martin's day is one which arouses many pleasant and unpleasant memories in the minds of our French and Scotch people or their descendants who have inherited wealth of tradition.

According to the Roman calendar November 11 is given over to St. Martin who was bishop of Tours and Poitiers in the fourth century and whose pious and miraculous deeds attracted large crowds from all parts of Gaul. So great was his patronage that he

The Finest Pie

Homes ever serve—Real Lemon Pie

The queen of pies is lemon pie, yet how rarely people serve it.

The home-made pie takes time and trouble, so lemon pie days come rather far apart.

Now the makers of Jiffy-Jell are making Jiffy-Pie. This is real lemon pie at its best, made to serve easily and quickly.

It comes in a package, almost ready-made. The sugar is there, the egg yolk, powdered milk, corn starch and tapioca.

The lemon essence—made from lemon peel—comes sealed in a glass bottle, so its freshness can't escape.

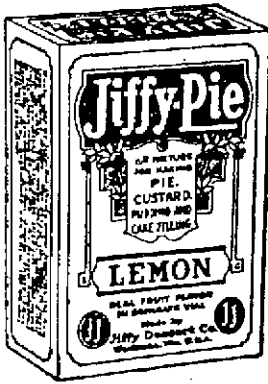

Add water, cook a little, and you have a lemon pie filler such as only few can make.

The users of Jiffy-Jell will know it must be right. That fruity dessert, with its flavors in vials, has won millions by its quality.

The same experts make this Jiffy-Pie. The same ideals are behind it. If you like one, you will like the other.

Learn this better way to make good lemon pie. The pies you make cost more than this. They take much time. And you have rare skill if you make an equal pie.

Let this way help you serve them easier and oftener.

PRES.-ELECT HARDING
GOES TARPOON FISHING

POINT ISABEL, Tex., Nov. 10.—(By the Associated Press)—President-elect Harding went tarpon fishing yesterday, and although his prize catch got away after a 45-minute tussle, he liked the sport so well that he stayed out from morning until nightfall.

It was the breaking of a trolly line tangled in the wreckage of an old wharf that lost him his fight with the biggest fish he ever had hooked, a tarpon described by his companions as measuring more than six feet. The president-elect's boat had pulled close to shore, and the sea giant was showing signs of giving up when the line caught fast and snapped. He had several other bites, but came home empty handed, favored on the first day of his vacation by clear, hot weather.

REGISTRATION SESSIONS
The election commissioners registered 25 men and 16 women desiring to vote at the city primaries this year at city hall yesterday. By wards, the registration was as follows: Ward 1, one man and four women; ward 2, one man and one woman; ward 3, two men and two women; ward 4, one woman; ward 5, seven men and one woman; ward 6, two men and four women; ward 7, six men and two women; ward 8, five men and one woman; ward 9, one man. Totals: 25 men, 16 women.

POINT ISABEL, Tex., Nov. 10.—(By the Associated Press)—President-elect Harding went tarpon fishing yesterday, and although his prize catch got away after a 45-minute tussle, he liked the sport so well that he stayed out from morning until nightfall.

It was the breaking of a trolly line tangled in the wreckage of an old wharf that lost him his fight with the biggest fish he ever had hooked, a tarpon described by his companions as measuring more than six feet. The president-elect's boat had pulled close to shore, and the sea giant was showing signs of giving up when the line caught fast and snapped. He had several other bites, but came home empty handed, favored on the first day of his vacation by clear, hot weather.

NAVY MEN, TAKE NOTICE!

November 11 will be the last day for navy men who have been out of the service more than four months and less than one year to re-enlist and retain their continuous service and receive a bonus of four months' pay. The new rates of pay are as follows: Chief petty officer, $126; C.P.O., acting appointment, $99; P.O., 1c, $84; P.O., 2c, $72; P.O., 3c, $60; seaman, $54; seaman, 2c, $48; fireman, 1c, $40; fireman, 2c, $34; fireman, 3c, $28. Seven dollars is added to each of these for the first re-enlistment. Herman Croteau, 318 Moody street, and Joseph R. DuBo, 56 Salem street, were signed up at the station this morning for naval service.

IN POLICE COURT

In contrast to the large list of offenders before the court yesterday morning, only four cases were called before Judge Bright this morning. An employee of the local postoffice department was ordered turned over to the United States court in Boston, a charge of being a stubborn elf entered against a minor of Contrabville was dismissed, and complaints of larceny against two schoolboys, arrested by Inspector Walsh, were put over to the juvenile session, Friday. The probation officer released one first offender for drunkenness.

WEEK-DAY FAIR OPENS

Y. M. C. A. Hall Presents
Attractive Scene—Supper
and Entertainment Tonight

"Reveries of a Bachelor" will be presented this evening in Y.M.C.A. hall under the direction of Mrs. Gilman Alcott as part of the entertainment connected with the "week-day" fair. Other members on the program will include aesthetic dancing by Miss Beatrice Taylor, new to Lowell audiences, and vocal selections by Commissioner J. E. Donnelly. There will also be orchestral music.

The "week-day" fair opened this afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Y.M.C.A. hall gaily decorated and divided off into numerous booths. It is a very attractive scene. There are many beautiful and useful articles offered for sale. The fair will be run this evening and all day Thursday and Friday, with special entertainment provided afternoon and evening. The first thing on the program tonight will be a turkey supper.

BUSINESS WORRIES OF OL' CLOTHES DEALERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Fashionable uptown clothiers who are moving sluggish stocks by means of elaborately advertised reduction sales, have nothing in the way of business worries on their humble brothers of the ol' clothes curbstone market in Bayard street, off the Bowery.

Despite a lively cut-rate war, these picturesque dealers' second and third hand clothes assert, business has come almost to a standstill.

Some blame the trouble on prohibition, which has dulled many a buying mood, and others attribute it to the passing of the era of extravagant buying. All agree, however, there is a surprising lack of customers.

Silk shirts, which were in demand since the armistice was signed, they say, are out of favor. Fancy shoes, silk socks and gaudy cravats are no longer in demand. One street corner merchant cut the price of a $15 overcoat to $13.85, in the course of half an hour's argument, but couldn't make a sale.

Mexican Government Intervenes in Strike

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 10.—The government intervened today in the situation at Vera Cruz, where dock workers and stevedores are on strike. All operations at piers in that city will be conducted by the government, it is announced, and it is believed the situation, which has threatened a general national strike, may be alleviated. Representatives of electrical workers, bakers, street car employees and steel and metal workers crowded a theatre here last night to discuss a sympathetic strike, but no action will be taken until the Vera Cruz strikers decide whether they will accept government mediation.

club, held last night in the office of General Secretary Howe, plans for a thanksgiving dinner for the men were made. The formation of an orchestra by the dormitory men was also considered. Those of the social committee present were George Cobb, Herbert Dumesnil, Louis Shapere and Arthur Goodwin.

11 Hens Idle; Now Lay 221 Eggs A Month

Almost Gave Up Raising Chickens. Then She Tried This Plan.

"When I accepted your offer and tried Don Sung, I was getting 1 or 2 eggs every other day. The next month, using Don Sung, my 11 hens laid 221 eggs. I almost quit raising chickens, but now I will raise as many as I can."—Mrs. E. C. Young, Bellefonte, Pa.

You also can easily start your hens laying and keep them laying, even in coldest winter. To prove it, accept our offer, as Mrs. Young did.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.00 (includes war tax) for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Duggs Co., 211 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Fat That Shows Soon Disappears

Prominent fat that comes and stays where it is not needed is a burden; a hindrance to activity, and a curb upon pleasure. Many forms of advice to reduce weight have been advanced, such as dieting, hard work, excessive exercise, etc., all of which are either unpleasant or dangerous.

The latest, more modern and pleasant way to take off burlesome fat, is to take after each meal and at bedtime a Marmola Tablet. These little tablets are as effective and harmless as the famous Marmola Prescription from which they take their name. To get rid of fat at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week, simply take one of these little tablets after each meal and at bedtime until you have reached your weight to which you wish to remain. No weight or stubbornness will remain to show where the fat came off.

They are for sale by all druggists at $1 for a good size box. You prefer to have them come to you direct by mail, prepaid, in a sealed cover, send amount to the Marmola Co., 87 Garfield Building, Detroit, Mich., and bid goodbye to dieting, exercise and fat. Be yourself, slim, trim and attractive.

STREET RAILWAY HOME RULE COMMITTEE

After a month's deliberation on the matter of formulating recommendations for lower fares in Lowell, the street railway home rule committee, which met at the city hall at its meeting tomorrow afternoon at city hall.

Before the meeting of the home rule committee at 4 o'clock the sub-committee and the street railway committee of the chamber of commerce will meet at the chamber's rooms to discuss whatever recommendations are to be made. Both these committees have considered a mass of data in the past few weeks and whatever suggestions are made for fare reduction here will be based on scientific study of local conditions and the finances of the railway company.

Although it is not known just what recommendations for fare reductions will be made at tomorrow's meeting, one member of the home rule committee is known to favor a six-cent fare with transfers issued at five cents. This method has been tried in other cities with success, it is pointed out, and it is believed that the revenue derived from such a fare rate would be sufficient to not only cover the operating and maintenance expenses but also to pay the interest on the bonds. The reduction in operating expenses of the local division, owing to the general introduction of one-man cars, calling for fewer employees and less operating power, is pointed out as another saving which is being effected here and which should be considered in any discussion of fare reduction.

NOMINATION PAPERS

With the time for filing nomination papers for the city primaries fast drawing to a close, the election commissioners are completing their list of candidates for aldermen and the school committee. The latest applicant to announce his candidacy is Fred G. Leary of 22 Parkview avenue, who has taken out nomination papers for alderman. Mr. Leary is manager of the Day State dye house in Prescott street. The time for filing papers expires at 5 p. m. next Saturday.

FIREMEN JOIN RED CROSS

Members of the Lowell fire department have again responded to a civic call in full numbers. Chief Edward F. Saunders reported today that every member of the department, 114 in all, has joined the Red Cross for the year 1921. The 1920 campaign does not open officially until tomorrow morning but the local fire fighters did not wait for the formalities but enrolled before time. Every member whose name appears on the department's payroll will be given a button tomorrow, signifying that he is a member of the great relief organization.

MOONSHINE CACKLE GUIDES DRY RAIDERS

The federal officers have seized quite a number of "moonshine" makers, commonly called stills, in and about Lowell and there's a pretty good story going the rounds about how these "chickens" guided them to one of the stills. The story was not told by the officers, but leaked out through other channels.

It seems that the attention of the officers who were looking for stills in a neighboring town was directed by a behavior of a flock of hens. One of the officers had read about the prohibition officers having guided federal stills in the state of Washington and he had memorized all the symptoms as contained in the article which he had read.

He explained that where there's a still there is generally a large flock of chickens. The chickens have a double purpose. They camouflage the presence of the still and can be fed on what is left over after the "moonshine" has been made. After a while the chickens become tame and their behavior is apparent to the world.

Well, anyway, after the still had been located the officer who had read about the "moonshine" chickens regarded his companions with the symptoms, which he described as follows: "A run-rooster of a housewife, as these pathetic victims of the drink demon are termed," he said, "loses its self-respect, its health and its industry. Instead of scratching for bugs, a bird in the clutches of alcoholism haunts the village of its owner's still, waiting for the dumping of a supply of mash. Feathers become disheveled, the eye dull, the feet uncertain, just as you see in the case with these chickens here, and they are given to causeless cackling or untimely crowing. A fact I presume you also noted. I was positive as soon as I landed there today that we were going to find a still."

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. William A. Collins of this city and Miss Mildred Ford of Brockton were married Saturday by Rev. Fr. Creamer of St. Patrick's church, Nashua, N. H. The bridesmaid was Miss Anita Collins, while the best man was Mr. George L. Collins. The couple will make their home in Brockton.

AUTOMOBILE DAMAGED

A one-man car coming on the Broadway line collided with a Ford sedan owned and operated by Arthur O. Montmarquet of Tyngsboro in Dutton St. near Broadway last night at 6:45 o'clock. The door of the automobile was smashed, a rear wheel demolished and the left rear wheel demolished. Mr. Montmarquet was slightly injured. The automobile was about to turn around the Dutton street when it was struck broadside by the electric car.

RIALTO THEATRE

"The Splendid Hazard," the Allan Dwan production, is making its final showing at the Rialto theatre today. The picture has drawn big crowds to the theatre and should continue to do so for the remaining showings here. It is the story of a French war correspondent whose mind is unbalanced by Napoleon. The correspondent learns of buried treasure in Corsica and sets out with a party of American soldiers to dig for it. The Rialto is also showing "Breezy Bob," a western picture with Franklin starring. "Her Dog," a Hank Mann comedy, the picture of the week, will be shown on the Fox news.

THEIR GOOD TIME WAS NIPPED IN THE BUD

Two school girls, one 11 years and the other 15, and one formerly of this city, started on a sight-seeing trip from the North station in Boston last Monday. They got as far as St. John's, Vt., where they became embroiled in the clutches of immigration officials. They were returned to this city last night and were held at the local police station for safe keeping pending action of the proper authorities.

Both girls were under the care of a state girls' protective society in Boston; one of them having been put on probation and had been assigned to private families in Brookline and South Weymouth. While living with the private families they were allowed to attend high school and enjoy all the privileges of any girls of their age, although still under the supervision of the state authorities. Everything was being done for their comfort and since January, 1919, when they were first turned over to the state society, had been doing good according to one of the state officials.

Despite all attempts of the authorities to prevent the two girls from keeping up friendship after being assigned to these private families, they continued to correspond secretly. They during the last week-end they made arrangements over the telephone to meet in the North station on Monday morning. Instead of going to school on that day both wended their way to the railroad depot, books in hand, ready to start on their escape. On starting they had $24 in cash which they had saved and collected from friends.

They did not buy tickets to Montreal, although that was where they intended to go, but planned to make the trip to Canada in jumps and officers connected with the case believe that they made a stop-over in Lowell and that they obtained more money here. However, according to the story now, they boarded the trains, dodging as best they could the questions of the conductors and telling that they were on their way to visit an aunt in Vermont.

Without luggage of any kind, the two girls admitted that they presented a strange appearance to the railway officials who became suspicious of their alleged visit. Arriving in northern Vermont either late Monday night or early Tuesday morning, they jumped into the hands of the immigration officials.

They tried every way to fool the officers, the girls say, and to a certain extent they did succeed in making them believe their story. In their own words, "They got the immigration officers all twisted up." But the immigration officials detained them and telegraphed to the father of one of the girls. The proper authorities were notified and they were sent back on the train with the Lowell police notified as to when they would arrive in this city.

At the next regular meeting of the Educational club there will be a special speaker to be announced later. Yesterday a very interesting "Current Events" day was held.

Dr. R. J. Shafer of Albany, N. Y., has been installed as full-time pathologist at St. John's hospital and will be on duty from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. St. John's is the only hospital in the city to have a full-time pathologist.

With the ladies of St. Paul's M. E. church acting as hostesses, the Lowell General Hospital Aid association held its regular meeting yesterday. For entertainment Mrs. Vard Leavitt rendered a vocal selection and Mrs. Chas. Martin and Mrs. Henry Sheldon a duet, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Richardson.

George P. Wells, secretary of the Lowell chamber of commerce, will attend the November meeting of the New England Association of Commercial Executives, to be held in Providence next Friday and Saturday. Representatives of commercial organizations from all parts of New England will be in attendance. The principal speaker will be J. A. McKibben, secretary of the Boston chamber of commerce.

Dr. Mary Rolle Farnum, first woman to capture a seat in the New Hampshire state legislature, is a niece of Joseph M. Wilson, seventh avenue, this city. But, unlike her uncle who is a staunch republican, she is a dyed-in-the-wool democrat.

Dr. Farnum was a delegate to the recent democratic state convention and was elected a vice president of that body. She has been active in religious and philanthropic work and has been head of the Red Cross organization in Penacook.

Dr. Farnum is a member of both the Penacook and Concord Women's clubs and has served as chairman of the art committee of the State Federation of Women's clubs. She defeated her republican opponent for the state legislature by a vote of 267 to 237.

MILLS TO CLOSE TILL MONDAY MORNING

The employees of the Merrimack Mills Co. and the Massachusetts cotton mills will be given an opportunity to observe Armistice day tomorrow, for both plants will close this evening until Monday morning. For the past several weeks these mills have been shutting down Thursday nights for the remainder of the week, but this week the mill officials, influenced somewhat by the fact that the day will be Armistice day, decided to shut down tonight.

The Tremont & Suffolk mills will shut down as usual tomorrow night until Monday morning, while the Ipswich mill will suspend operations Friday night until Nov. 29. This holiday has been operating on an average of about a week a month during the past few months and because of a further depression in business the entire plant will shut down for another couple of weeks.

The Shaw Stocking Co., which up to last week had been operating full time with a slight reduction in the number of employees, will shut down tomorrow night until Monday morning. The Lowell Textile Co. of North Chelmsford, which shut down Oct. 9, has not yet resumed operations and this morning the superintendent of the plant stated that there are no prospects in sight at present for a resumption of operations.

ADDITION FOR CLASSROOM

The inspector of public buildings has issued a permit to the Coburn mission in Varum avenue to erect an addition in the rear of the building, to be used as a classroom. The estimated cost of the work is $100.

PLAN INFANTILE PARALYSIS CLINIC

Rachael J. Norton, field secretary of the Harvard infantile paralysis commission, was a visitor at the office of the board of health today to make arrangements for the infantile paralysis clinic to be held in the Aldermanic chamber at city hall next Wednesday, Nov. 17, from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m.

The clinic to be held here on that date promises to be one of the largest ever held in Lowell. Not only children who are afflicted with the disease but a large number of adults also will be treated, and it will be the first joint clinic of its kind ever held here. There are 55 cases of the disease in Lowell at the present time, according to Miss Norton.

Dr. Arthur T. Legg, director of the infantile paralysis clinic of the Boston Children's hospital, will have charge of the clinic for children here and Dr. H. C. Low, who directs the clinic at the Massachusetts General hospital, will have charge of the adult clinic here.

A corps of 14 workers from the Harvard commission, including secretaries, nurses, muscle testers, etc., will come to Lowell on the date of the clinic. There have been 15 new cases of the disease reported in Lowell since the beginning of the year and several deaths have occurred. Miss Norton finds Lowell among the cities heavily hit by the present epidemic, Springfield, Haverhill, Lynn, Newburyport and Boston being among the others.

Agent Francis J. O'Hare of the board of health lays stress on the fact that any family which is now under quarantine or which will be when the clinic is held here should not allow any of its members to attend the clinic.

Administrator's Auction Sale of Real Estate

Thursday, November 11, 1920, at 3 O'Clock

A VERY DESIRABLE CORNER PIECE OF REAL ESTATE, A TWO-FAMILY HOUSE, NOS. 109 AND 101 WALKER ST., LOWELL, MASS.

To settle the estate of the late Peter P. Conant, I shall sell at public auction to the person that will bid the highest and comply with the terms of sale, this modern built two-family house and 4500 square feet of land, with a lot with a frontage of about 37-60-100 feet on Walker street and about 37-14-100 feet on Bertha street.

This two-family house was built for Farrell & Conant and they were joint owners. To settle the estate of the late Peter P. Conant and for the purpose of making a division of the property, both interests will be sold at public auction at the above mentioned date and place.

The house is two-story and has a gravel roof. Each tenement has half of the house, up and down stairs, so that they are entirely separate.

The tenements have seven rooms, pantry, bathroom, set tubs, hot and cold water, open plumbing, steam heat, radiators in every room, has electricity and gas, separate front and back stairs, front and side entrances, cemented cellars, and the house is in good repair inside and out. The tenements rent for $30 per month each, or $720 per year for both.

The house sits high on the lot, has piazza in front, covered back porch leading to the cellar. There are concrete walks about the place with stone steps and a granite-capped wall along the front of the lot. It is but two houses from the Broadway electric car line. Stores, schools and many workshops are nearby, and tenements in this section are never idle.

This property should appeal to any person wishing to invest in a modern, up-to-date, two-family house. A liberal mortgage may be had if so desired.

Terms of sale: $500 deposit in cash must be paid or secured to the auctioneer as soon as the property is sold. Other terms at sale.

WILLIAM F. FARRELL, GEORGE M. HARRIGAN, Administrator of the Estate of Peter P. Conant.

ITALY SENDS ULTIMATUM

Count Sforza Lays Down Definite Minimum Claims to Jugo Slavs

Terms Presented to Delegation in Controversy Over Adriatic Question

RAPALLO, Italy, Nov. 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—In what may be considered an ultimatum sent to the Yugoslav delegation here regarding the pending negotiations between Italy and Yugoslavia over the Adriatic question, Count Sforza, the Italian minister, as head of the Italian delegation, laid down Italy's definite minimum claims. These, the document stated, were:

The Istrian frontier, including the Julian Alps, Nevaio mountain and the railway from Fiume to St. Peter Junction.

Second: Territorial continuity between Fiume and Italy.

Third: Fiume to be a state entirely independent, without any control by the league of nations.

Fourth: Annexation of the islands of Lussin-Piccola and Cherso to Italy.

Fifth: Annexation of Zara to Italy.

Sixth: Annexation of several of the Yugoslav islands to Italy for strategic reasons.

Seventh: Guarantees for the protection of the Italian minorities in Dalmatia remaining under Serbian rule.

Eighth: Demilitarization of some of the Dalmatian positions which will be allotted to Serbia.

It is stated the Italian minimum terms were presented on the request of the Yugoslav delegation. The Yugoslavs were said to consider the Italian terms excessive, but they reserved their reply until the claims had been further examined.

CLAIMS MEMORY LOST

Superior Court Witness Testifies Regarding Injuries Resulting From Auto Crash

Mrs. Mary Wilkins of Wilmington testified in the superior court today that she has suffered from loss of memory and hallucinations as the result of injuries received in the alleged collision of an automobile in which she was riding with a truck belonging to Fred Ingham of Lowell. The alleged accident happened Dec. 3, 1919, on the state road near Waverest station.

Mrs. Wilkins, her husband, G. B. Wilkins, and Miss Alice Fawthrop, a domestic in the Wilkins home, are suing Mr. Ingham for compensation for alleged injuries received when the two cars collided.

Mrs. Wilkins said on the stand, in reply to questions by plaintiff's counsel, Albert Howard, that she had been unable to control her nerves since the accident and that she suffered pain in her back and at the base of her brain. She asserted that she sometimes lost the use of her lower limbs. A short time ago she had to stop in the middle of the street in Manchester, N. H., and

State Director Says Lowell Vocational School "Old and Nondescript"

Recommend New Building in Lengthy Report to School Board

Committee to Ask City Council for $60,000 to Complete 1920 Work

The Lowell Boys' Vocational school is housed in an "old, nondescript building, poorly lighted and badly arranged for good instruction purposes," according to a report which has just been submitted to the school committee by R. O. Small, director of the division of vocational education of the state board of education. Mr. Small has made a personal survey of the local school and in his report recommends the erection of a new building and the installation of new and additional equipment.

His report was but one of several features of last evening's meeting of the school committee, originally scheduled for Oct. 26. The committee voted to request the city council to appropriate an additional $60,000 to place out the department's funds for the rest of the year.

Action on the petitions of teachers and janitors for salary increases was deferred until the next meeting, Nov. 30, when delegations representing both classes of employees will be invited to appear before the committee.

The committee voted to sanction the opening of special music classes in the public schools after school hours, to be conducted under the direction of Miss Inez Field Damon, representing Lowell Community Service.

RESUME PROBE OF SHIP BOARD

J. F. Richardson Says Individuals of No Standing or Experience Favored

Allocated U. S. Shipping Board Vessels for Operation, He Charges

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Individuals and corporations of no financial standing and no experience in maritime affairs have been allocated United States shipping board vessels for operation, J. F. Richardson testified here today when the Walsh congressional committee resumed its investigation of shipping board affairs.

Richardson, who as secretary and statistician to the committee has been investigating, declared that irresponsible individuals were favored while established steamship companies complained of inability to secure any tonnage whatever.

Such allocation, he asserted, had been made at will by a director of operation under the board who commanded vessels from established transport lines and re-allocated them to private companies. Ships, he said, had been turned over to companies in which relatives of men connected with the shipping board were financially interested.

He added that those who had purchased vessels outright from the board had complained they could not compete with companies financed and equipped by the shipping board. Others, he said, felt they had cause of dissatisfaction when the board took back and re-allocated vessels turned over to them.

"The statement has been made," he said, "that out of 200 concerns to which ships have been allocated, there are so many irresponsible companies that the list must be cut in half."

One of the gravest defects of the shipping board's system, he said, was the lack of foreign agents, which, on occasions, made it necessary for super-cargoes on the board's vessels to go out and solicit freight so that the ships might not be compelled to return to home ports in ballast.

Richardson criticized the failure to establish reciprocal working agreements with other agents through which ships might be kept busy, adding: "There are instances where an operator with cargo enough for a half dozen ships has but one vessel or two, while other agents at the same time may be keeping ships idle for lack of cargoes."

The recent creation of the United States bureau of shipping, the witness characterized as "entirely unnecessary."

61 TO BE DEPORTED

Aliens, Traveling in Special Cars Heavily Guarded Arrive in New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Sixty-one aliens, traveling in two special cars heavily guarded by immigration officials, arrived here today from Chicago and the far west and were taken to Ellis Island for deportation.

One of them, Paul Mozoris, known to the Ellis Island authorities as a desperate radical, escaped from the immigration station last June by leaping out of a window and swimming ashore. He was recaptured in Kalamazoo, Mich.

Because of his attitude when questioned by the immigration officials concerning the Wall Street explosion, he will be held for further examination by the labor department and the department of justice.

SILENT TRIBUTE

All Business to Cease for Minute in Chicago Tomorrow

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—A proclamation was issued by the mayor today calling upon citizens to observe Armistice day tomorrow. At 11 o'clock in the morning the city will pay one minute's silent tribute to American soldiers who died in the war.

At a signal from traffic policemen all vehicles and street cars will stop moving. Pedestrians will halt and face the east. Buglers scattered about the downtown district will advance to the middle of street corners and sound Taps.

The moment will be preceded by a din of factory whistles, bells, sirens and horns.

HONOR NAVAL OFFICERS

First Announcement of Awards for Distinguished Service During War

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—First announcement of awards to naval officers for distinguished service during the war was made at the Boston navy yard today.

Rear Admiral Herbert O. Dunn, commanding the first naval district, was the only recipient here of the Distinguished Service Medal. The citation which accompanied the honor said it was given for "exceptionally meritorious service in a duty of great responsibility as commanding officer of the naval station at Ponta Delgada, Azores."

The Distinguished Service Cross was awarded eleven other officers, among them Rear Admiral S. S. Robison, commander of the Boston yard, who commanded the submarine force which operated in the war zone.

Actual presentation of the medals will not be made until tomorrow, Armistice day, under orders from Secretary Daniels, at whose direction the sealed awards were opened today and announcement made to those concerned of the honors given.

Those given the Navy cross follow: Commander George F. Neale, who was commanding officer of "U.S.S. Cummings," engaged in important, exacting and hazardous duty of patrolling the waters infested with enemy submarines and mines, and securing and protecting vitally important convoys of troops and supplies through these waters, and in offensive and defensive actions rigorously and unflinchingly prosecuted against submarine activity.

Asst. P. J. Kelly, command officer of "U.S.S. C-124," engaged in important, exacting and hazardous duty of patrolling the waters of the war zone and operating against enemy submarines.

Capt. Adolphus E. Watson, executive officer of the battleship Florida, on duty with the grand fleet.

Capt. George Freeman, who commanded a naval base hospital in France.

Lieut. Commander Robert A. Lavenor, who served as pilot on seaplane service.

Lieuts. Birney O. Halliwell, Michael J. Wilkinson, and William Fremgen, who were commanding vessels that were part of the mine-sweeping flotilla that laid down the barrage in the North sea.

Chief Boatswain's Mate Charles R. Moro, who was in charge of the armed ship Tidewater on March 7, 1918, when it repelled a night submarine attack.

Capt. John T. Tompkins, now commanding the battleship Delaware, also was to receive a navy cross, but because of his absence today the citation was not announced.

Sims Not Mentioned

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 10.—Announcement today of awards for notable naval service during the war contained no mention of honor for Admiral William S. Sims, president of the college, who was the commander of the American naval forces in the war zone.

Admiral Sims had refused an original recommendation for a Distinguished Service Medal as a protest against failure of the navy department to accept his recommendations for honors to subordinate.

PRIVATE CLOUTRE

Body of Lowell Soldier Who Died in France Arrived Here This Morning, From New York

The body of Private William H. Cloutre, a Lowell boy who died in France March 2, 1919, arrived in this city this morning, aboard the 3 o'clock New York, New Haven and Hartford train, and was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers Amos Archambault and Sons in Merrimack street.

Private Cloutre, who was the son of Mrs. Agnes Cloutre, 455 Moody street, was a member of Battery D, F.A.A.E.F., and was taken ill with pneumonia while on his way home, in France, and died a few days later. He leaves his mother and two brothers, Joseph A. Cloutre and Leopold Cloutre, all of this city. The body will be taken to the parlors of the C.M.A.C. in Pawtucket street, and the time of the funeral will be announced later.

Penetration of the Crimean Peninsula Claimed in Official Statement

Fighting for Possession of Wrangel's Fortified Positions in Perekop Region

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Penetration of the Crimean peninsula is claimed in the Russian soviet official statement of Tuesday, received here today by wireless.

The statement says: "In the Perekop region we are fighting for possession of the enemy's fortified positions."

"Further east, during fighting, we crossed the river Sivach into the Crimean peninsula and debouched at Kerdzhania."

PARIS, Nov. 10.—Reports from disinterested military observers at Sevastopol state that the recent retreat of Gen. Wrangel's army into the Crimea was accomplished with notable success. It was said at the French foreign office today. The morale of the troops, the reports declared, remained extremely high, and Gen. Wrangel was reported as confident that with proper material he could reorganize the forces and maintain his positions without great difficulty.

It was the overwhelming number of the soviet troops appearing on the south Russian front which precipitated his retreat, the general asserted.

ONE-MAN CARS

Regulations Issued by Department of Public Utilities

Special to The Sun

BOSTON, November 10.—The department of public utilities in an order issued today declared that the one-man cars are not a menace to the public safety if equipped with adequate safety devices and if, therefore, ordered that every car operated in this state shall conform to the following regulations: At night it must have a lighted head light; wheel guards across the front and rear of each truck, hand brakes which may be operated from either end, a sand distributor and a lifting jack.

In addition, every one-man car must be equipped with a device which will shut off motive power and apply the brakes whenever the operator's hand is removed from the control lever, also a device which will permit passengers whenever occasion requires, to shut off the power, apply the brakes and open the rear door.

ARMISTICE DAY TOMORROW

No Formal Municipal Observance of the Day in This City

High School Exercises in Keith's Theatre—American Legion Ball Tonight

In marked contrast with the excitement and two days' celebration which marked the occasion two years ago, Lowell will observe Armistice day tomorrow, Nov. 11, in a quiet and passive manner. There will be no formal municipal observance, although some of the neighboring cities have planned more or less extensive celebrations of the second anniversary of the cessation of hostilities.

Mayor Harry D. Thompson, who has been enjoying a vacation for the past week, had not returned to his office at city hall today but was expected back in town this evening. Other than accepting the invitation of the Lowell post of the American Legion to attend its armistice ball in Associate hall this evening, the municipal council has made no preparations to observe the occasion.

The American Legion ball this evening, a formal program of exercises at Keith's theatre by students of the high school tomorrow and informal exercises in a number of the elementary schools will be the chief features of the local observance. The legion hall will be held in Associate hall and indications point to the most successful social affair yet held by the local post. State officers of the organization have been invited to attend and a most attractive program has been arranged by the committee in charge. One of the features will be the reading of an Armistice day proclamation from the state commander of the legion, James T. Duane. The local post will hold open house all day tomorrow.

At the High School

The third and fourth periods in the high school session tomorrow morning will be omitted and the entire school will assemble in Keith's theatre at 11:30 o'clock for armistice day exercises. Appropriate exercises will be carried out with School Committee-man Pearson as the principal speaker. With the entire student body of the school gathered together, the cheer

16 CLUBS TO MEET FRIDAY

Informal Meeting of All American and National League Teams in Chicago

Herrmann Reads Telegram During Address to Minor Leaguers

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 10.—Peace is in sight in the major league baseball war. This statement was made by August Herrmann, representing the National league, when he appeared today to address the National Association of Minor Leagues. He said an informal meeting of the sixteen club owners of the National and American leagues would be held in Chicago Friday.

Before Mr. Herrmann had proceeded very far in his address to the minor leaguers, he was handed a telegram. He read it slowly and then announced: "I told you gentlemen that I believed peace in baseball was going to come in the very near future. I have just received a telegram advising me that an informal meeting of the sixteen clubs in the American and National leagues will be held in Chicago Friday."

Herrmann declared that the telegram was signed by five club owners of the American league loyal to President Johnson and who refused to attend the meeting in Chicago last Friday, when the formation of a new 12 club league was completed.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 10.—With the opening shots fired in the scramble for the support of the National Association of Minor Leagues, August Herrmann, owner of the Cincinnati Nationals and a leader of the organization of the new 12 club league, is to address the convention of minor leaguers here today in an appeal for endorsement of the Lasker plan for baseball reorganization.

He will attempt to offset the substantial impression created among the minor league leaders yesterday by Harrison Johnson, president of the American league, and George W. Miller, the American league attorney, who urged the minors to appoint a committee of three to meet a similar committee of the major leagues in a final effort to avert a baseball war. Johnson in opposing the Lasker plan, told the minor leaguers that the management of baseball should remain in the hands of men who have devoted their

YONCALLA, Ore., Nov. 10—Yoncalla for one week has been strictly a woman's town. In spirit and in fact women have been the town's leaders since a week ago when they elected a woman mayor and a woman to every other place in the city government.

The women say the election has permanently changed the town and added to the fact that a woman cannot keep a secret and that women cannot successfully play politics.

From house to house the women carried on their political campaign secretly prior to election. It had been "whispered," they said, that the men intended to let the menhounds hold over without bother of a new ticket. The men did not bother about the city election. Result:

Mayor, Mrs. Mary Burl, native Oregonian, graduate of Pacific college, class of 1873, who has lived here 43 years, republican.

Councilmen: Mrs. Jennie H. Lasswell, wife of the retiring mayor, and prominent clubwoman; Mrs. Bernice Wilson, pioneer school teacher and wife of postmaster; Mrs. Nettie Hannum, wife of a retired capitalist.

The women have no definite plans for promoting the welfare of the town, the mayor-elect said today.

"We intend to study conditions," she said, "and do all in our power to give the city a good efficient government. As the worst, we cannot do much worse than the men have done."

Mayor, Jessa D. Lasswell, who has lost his job, said his cohorts were taken off their guard, but he has promised the women his help.

LINEN SHOWER

Miss May McLaughlin, Popular Employee of the Massachusetts Mills, Honored by Her Co-Workers

Miss May McLaughlin, a popular employee of the cloth room of the Massachusetts Mills, who on Nov. 17 will be united in marriage to Mr. Walter Murray, the ceremony to be performed at St. Patrick's church, was tendered a linen shower in the quarters of the Massachusetts Mills Women's Social and Industrial club last evening. The affair was attended by over 100 women employees of the mill and all spent a most enjoyable evening.

In the course of the evening Miss McLaughlin was showered with valuable pieces of linen and later an entertainment program of high merit was given, a feature of which was a wicker marriage, those participating being Miss Alice Brennan, clergyman; Miss Margaret Lalley, bride; Miss Anna Ryan, bridegroom; Miss Anna Leonard, best man; Miss Roseline McCabe, bridesmaid; Miss Lillian Tanguay, Miss Helen O'Connor, Miss Katherine Harrigan and Miss Marion McGee, flower girls. Other numbers included Spanish dances by Miss Helen Normandy; piano selections, Miss Gladys Cronin; vocal selections, Miss Laura Garrison and Miss Helen Lynch. Refreshments were served and the party broke up at a reasonable hour, all present extending their best wishes to the bride-to-be. Those responsible for the success of the affair were Miss May Owens, Miss Irene Leavitt and Miss Ann Taylor, the latter general director of the club.

AUTHOR'S RECITAL

Edward Everett Adams gave an author's recital at which he read a number of original poems in odd fellows temple Monday evening. A large party of invited guests was present. Mr. Adams' selections dealt largely with Nature both in her rugged and more appealing and gentler aspects. Some of the poems that gave the most pleasure were entitled "The Hills of the Highlands," "Ode to Nature," "A Journey to the Capetown of the Mountains," "Sunset at Intervale" and "Tearings." The evening's program opened with a "Festal March" played on the violin and piano by Mr. Marion Adams and Mr. Adams. There was later music by Mr. Marion Adams, and Charles E. Lattin.

Good Judgment After Eating

Giving the Stomach the Alkaline Effect by a Spoonful of Sloan's Liniment

You cannot as a rule, say in advance that this, that or the other food will cause indigestion. Experience has taught most people that even in the place

His tongue at times while at others a glass of milk raises hobs with the stomach.

One good rule to follow is the preventive measure of taking one or two Sloan's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. You thus avoid gasiness, sour stomach, heartburn and such distresses due to indigestion or dyspepsia. These tablets also help to digest the food by giving the stomach the alkaline effect to offset acidity; they relieve the distress when the stomach is out of order. They should be more than a match for your digestive powers. Get a 50-cent box of Sloan's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and note how easily they seem to calm the stomach when it feels all upset.—Adv.

LOWELL PEOPLE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Underlaker and Mrs. Amadee Archambault, their daughter, Lea, and Mrs. Archambault's sister, Miss Elodie Mineau had a narrow escape from death Sunday when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by another car on the state highway at a point between Albany and Schenectady, N. Y. Miss Mineau had four ribs fractured, while Mr. Archambault received a cut over the right eye, which necessitated the taking of eight stitches.

He also received severe injuries to his legs. Mrs. Archambault received a cut on the hip and bruises about the body, while Miss Archambault suffered bruises about the legs and body. Charles A. Smith, of the Packard Motor Car company, of Boston, who was operating the machine, received injuries to his hands and legs. All were treated at the Ellis hospital in Schenectady.

The Lowell party were on their way to Onondaga, N. Y., and were riding in a machine owned by the Packard Motor company, of Boston. When a point was reached on the state highway in Schenectady, about four miles from Albany, a Columbia automobile operated by James J. Della of Schenectady, was seen skidding in the road. Mr. Smith swung his car to the right into the ditch and brought his motor to a stop machine was wrecked.

and it was then that the other machine crashed into the auto occupied by the Lowell people. All were thrown out of the car, while the automobile was badly smashed. The Schenectady ditch and brought his motor to a stop machine was wrecked.

MR. TREMBLAY HONORED
Pierre Tremblay, superintendent of St. Joseph's cemetery, was agreeably surprised at his home in Chelmsford last evening on the occasion of his 44th birthday. After being showered with congratulations and best wishes, he was presented a handsome oak smoking cabinet. Entertainment numbers were given and refreshments were served.

CAREFUL STUDY OF TRI-PARTITE AGREEMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(By the Associated Press)—State department officers are giving careful study to the tri-partite agreement concluded between Great Britain, France and Italy for the creation of "sphere of influence" in Turkey, but it was stated yesterday that any objections that the American government might have to the agreement have not yet reached the formative stage.

Because of the unsettled nature of American foreign policies due to the approaching change of administration officials intimated that it was doubtful whether, even should the provisions of the agreement be found objectionable to the policy of this administration, the United States might find it expedient to forward a protest to the signatory nations.

GIRL KILLS HERSELF IN FRONT OF LOVER

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Plunging a Mexican dagger into her heart while talking to her former fiance, Miss T. Saunders, aged 25 years, of Laredo, Tex., ended her life on the Mezzanino floor of a downtown hotel here yesterday. H. H. Garvon, of this city, declared that an engagement between the two had recently been broken off, but declined to tell why. The young woman left no explanation of her act.

Hotel officials said the young woman registered Nov. 1 and appeared well-to-do.

PELHAM FOX HUNT

The dogs winning the prizes in the fox hunt, which was held Saturday in Pelham, N. H., under the auspices of the Pelham Fish and Game association, were as follows: First, "Tony," owned by Albert Boudreau of Derry, N. H.; second, "Rose," owned by Chas. Richardson of Pelham and third, "Rex," owned by Charles S. Koehler, of Pelham. The judges were Chairman John Horton of Derry, Charles Bradford of Salem, N. H., John Haggerty, of Salem, Mass., William Arvidson of Lynn and Albert Hall of this city.

Chief among the fresh fruits exported from the United States are apples, lemons and oranges.

150,000 Thrown Out of Work by Shump

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Nearly 150,000 members of the United Hebrew Trades in New York state have been thrown out of work in the last three weeks of "steady business recession," Morris Feinstein, associate secretary of the organization, announced here today. Of these 90,000 are tailors and cloth and dress goods makers, mostly in Greater New York.

Argentina Enthusiastic Over League

PARIS, Nov. 10.—Argentina is ready to do her utmost to contribute to the success of the League of Nations. Honorio Pueyrredon, foreign minister, has informed a representative of the newspaper Eclair of this city. "I am going to Geneva to attend the meeting of the league assembly," he said, "with the greatest enthusiasm. I believe in the success of the league if each nation brings to it good will. And that seems easier than the pessimists imagine. Nationalism, properly understood, is not incompatible with healthy internationalism."

Parish House Dynamited

STRUTHERS, Ohio, Nov. 10.—The parish house of Holy Trinity Czechoslovak Catholic church was dynamited early today, the porch being blown off. No one was injured. The house is occupied by Rev. John Frena, recently installed priest, against whose appointment a protest was made by members of the church who for a time maintained an armed guard to prevent his taking possession. The explosion today broke all the windows in one side of the parish house and one side of the church, and also broke windows in a hall across the street.

Seek to Free Schooner Trapped in Ice

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 10.—Nome, Alaska, residents are planning to send a snow sled relief expedition across the frozen Arctic to the trading schooner Polar Bear, which is trapped in the ice off the Siberian coast, 225 miles from Nome, according to reports received here. Reindeer will pull the sleds.

Strike Spreading in Spain

SALAMANCA, Spain, Nov. 10.—The railwaymen of this district here decided to strike in sympathy with other strikers in this city. Work was at a complete standstill today, all trades having joined in the movement. With few exceptions all stores closed.

OBJECT TO K. OF C. GIFT TO LEGION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Use of the $5,000,000 offered by the Knights of Columbus to the American Legion for a national memorial building in Washington would constitute a "moral breach of trust and an act of injustice" to many suffering soldiers, Marvin G. Sperry, national president of the Private Soldiers and Sailors' Legion, declared in an open letter yesterday to Supreme Knight James A. Finerty. The money offered was contributed during the war for the "aid and relief of our soldiers," Mr. Sperry asserted, and its use for the construction of a "great marble palace at Washington" would be an "indefensible aversion from the purpose for which it was intended."

New York today to consider acceptance of the offer.

CHELMSFORD NEWS

A meeting of the farmers of Chelmsford was held last evening in the town hall under the auspices of the Middlesex County Farm Bureau. There was a large attendance and the presiding officer was Karl M. Perham, the Chelmsford representative of the bureau. The speakers were Fred D. Griggs, who spoke on the American Farm Bureau federation and its program; Gilbert Wright, whose address was on the raising of alfalfa, and Sumner Gage of Marlboro, whose address was on the founding of a farmers' exchange in Chelmsford.

PLAN INDOOR RACE

Reports have it that George Couture of this city, and Luigi Ticoni of Lawrence, both marathon runners of considerable note locally, will meet in an indoor race in Lawrence soon. Ticoni won a ten mile race in Worcester Saturday. Couture and the Lawrence man have been edging up to a race for some time, but it was not until recently that the arrangements were made. Couture won the ten mile marathon held on the North common last Saturday, running 16 laps in 55 minutes and 40 seconds.

Hallifax Plans to Build by Popular Subscription Fishing Vessel to Race in Next Year's Regatta

HALIFAX, N.S., Nov. 10.—Announcement was made today of plans to build by popular subscription a fishing vessel to race in next year's international schooner regatta off Halifax harbor. Native Nova Scotians will design and build the vessel, which will be used as a regular fishing schooner, but which will be designed particularly with next year's race in view.

SURE, HARMLESS WAY TO REMOVE HAIR ROOTS

(New, Wonderful, Quick Method) You who are annoyed with embarrassing growths of superfluous hair have waited long for something that would do more than merely take off the surface hair temporarily—something that would really remove the root. And now—at last—your wish is realized!

The new phenetic process is far different from, far better, than electrolysis, depilatory or other methods, because it actually removes the hair entirely, roots and all—before your very eyes—easily, quickly, harmlessly! Get a stick of phenetic from your druggist, follow the simple directions, and you will be surprised and pleased beyond words. It has no odor, no irritating element, and is so non-injurious that a child could safely eat it. It leaves the skin so soft, smooth, hairless, that not the least sign of your former trouble remains.—Adv.

MINISTER WANTS TO HELP

It is only natural that one who has been relieved from suffering should feel grateful and want to help others. Rev. W. F. M. ### Claims Memory Lost

She could not move. She said she could not sleep and that she had hallucinations that food that she was putting on the table was unfit to eat. It was good food, but she thought it was potato parings and apple cores.

The witness said that Alice Fawthorpe had been epileptic before the accident, but that since the attacks had been more frequent. She said that Miss Fawthorpe had had five epileptic attacks in one month since the collision.

Dr. Andrew Buzzell of Wilmington testified that he was called to attend Mrs. Wilkins after the accident. He had seen her almost every day on the street previous to the accident and that she seemed to be in good health. When called to treat her, he found Mrs. Wilkins in bed complaining of pain and in a very nervous condition. The witness said that Alice Fawthorpe had been epileptic before the accident as the result of her having fallen down stairs during an epileptic attack.

Dr. Sumner of Lowell testified to being called to the scene of the accident. He said he found Mrs. Wilkins much excited and nervous, but that he found no evidence of particular injuries. He said that Miss Fawthorpe had a bruise on her head about one-half the size of a walnut and that she complained of a pain in her leg. No bones were broken.

On December 15, witness testified. He went with Dr. Mahoney to make an examination of Mrs. Wilkins. He found her very nervous, but saw no sign of bruises. Miss Fawthorpe was also examined and found to have bruises on her head and leg.

Dr. Herbert M. Larrabee of Tewksbury, a specialist on nervous and mental diseases, testified that he had had Mrs. Wilkins under observation. He examined her the first time last July and found her in a very nervous condition and suffering pain. He found no great disturbance of the organic reflexes. The reflexes below the waist were exaggerated showing some disturbance of the nervous system. There was no evidence in pupillary action of nervous change. She was suffering from traumatic neuroathoria without a lesion. She could not direct her mind away from the belief that she could not walk. This, witness said, in his opinion, was the result of the alleged accident.

Dr. Larrabee testified that Mrs. Wilkins told him of symptoms of a psychosis from which she had suffered eight years earlier. He said this had lasted about six years. He expressed the opinion that Mrs. Wilkins' present condition was likely to last two or three years.

Cross-examined by Frank E. Dunbar, counsel for the defense, the witness denied that Mrs. Wilkins had always been a "neurasthenic."

The deposition of Alice Fawthorpe, now in England, was read to the jury by Mr. Howard.

Loyman L. Kneeland, a farmer of Tewksbury, called by the defense, testified that Mr. Ingham had just driven away from his home when the alleged accident happened. He said that the lights on the car were burning at the time.

REPORT 3 AMERICANS KILLED IN RUSSIA

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Captain Emmet Kilpatrick, representative of the American Red Cross in South Russia, and two nurses were brutally killed during a Bolshevik cavalry raid on Sakhovo station, says a Sebastopol despatch to Reuters, limited, last night.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Reports reached the state department yesterday that Capt. Emmet Kilpatrick of the American Red Cross and G. A. Stechny of the Menonite Relief society, had been captured in the soviet advance in southern Russia, but no mention was made of the possible death of either one. It was believed that the recent assertion of the soviet government that an "American mission" headed by "General Morel" had been captured by their troops was founded on the capture of Kilpatrick.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 10.—An official canvass in the eighth congressional district gives for A. Scott, republican, a majority of 625 votes and the victory over his democratic opponent, Gordon Browning. This fixes the political alignment of the Tennessee delegation in the next house of representatives, on the face of the returns, as five republicans and five democrats, a net republican gain of three members.

Nearly 16,000 of the 40,000 disabled veterans of the United States army are now taking vocational and educational training.

$200,000 WORTH OF LIQUOR SEIZED

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 10.—Prohibition agents launched an offensive in New Jersey yesterday, arresting 35 men already under indictment for violation of the Volstead act and removing $200,000 worth of liquor from warehouses at Perth Amboy to Newark.

More than a score of agents continued searching for 45 additional liquor dealers and bartenders under indictment. It was announced that $200,000 worth of liquor was removed from warehouses at Perth Amboy to Newark. Those captured in the raid were put aboard a special trolley headed for Trenton to be arraigned.

There were 118 barrels, each containing 60 gallons, and 327 cases in the liquor removed from warehouses. It had been there since its seizure last September.

DRACUT NEWS

A general invitation is given to all farmers and farm women of Dracut to attend the organization meeting of the recently reorganized Middlesex county farm bureau to be held in the Dracut town hall this evening at 8 o'clock. Leaders in the farm bureau movement will be present to tell of the plans and the program of the new organization. In similar meetings last week more than 350 members were enrolled in 10 towns in the county. These meetings will be held each night for the next two weeks. Among the leaders who will speak at these meetings are Charles A. Wright of Billerica, president of the farm bureau, Albert R. Jenks of West Acton, its secretary, and Fred D. Griggs, secretary of the Massachusetts farm bureau federation. The local leader is Frank D. Bryant.

CROSSED ATLANTIC 1068 TIMES!

NEW YORK.—This man, Captain Arthur R. Mills, has crossed the Atlantic 1068 times! He has been with the American line for 41 years, during which time his cross-Atlantic service has resulted in his steaming more than 3,000,000 miles, a distance equal to 125 times around the world. His vessels have carried more than half a million people and without the loss of a single life! He was given the Cross of the Legion of Honor by France in 1917 for towing the disabled cruiser Jeanne d'Arc 400 miles to the Azores. Captain Mills, who has just retired, has sailed for England to take a holiday rest in the country of his birth.

TUESDAY NEWS

Everybody interested is invited to a meeting under the auspices of the Middlesex county farm bureau to be held in the Tewksbury town hall this evening at 8 o'clock for the organization of a local branch. The plans and purposes of the organization will be explained by representative leaders of the county and at a later meeting a definite organization will be perfected. The meeting is one of a series which is being held in the county. At meetings in 10 towns last week three hundred members joined. Among the speakers at these organization meetings are Charles A. Wright of Billerica, president of the county farm bureau, Albert R. Jenks of West Acton, the county secretary and Fred D. Griggs, secretary of the Massachusetts farm bureau federation. The local leader who is in charge of the meeting is Frank Carter.

DEPENDENT UPON IT 20 YEARS

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Been This Woman's Safeguard All That Time.

Omaha, Neb.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for over twenty years for female troubles and it has helped me very much. I have also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash with good results. I always have a bottle of Vegetable Compound in the house as it is a good remedy in time of need. You can publish my testimonial as every statement I have made is perfectly true."—Mrs. J. O. Finkquist, 2424 S. 20th Street, Omaha, Nebraska.

Women who suffer from those distressing peculiarities to their sex should be convinced by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

Women who are suffering from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headache, nervousness or "the blues" should not drag along from day to day without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

FOR FIELD ARTILLERY

Enlistments For Eleventh Field Artillery at Camp Grant Open For Periods of Three Years.

Notice has been received at the local army recruiting station that enlistments for the 11th Field Artillery at Camp Grant, Illinois, are now open for periods of three years. The 11th Field Artillery is a motorized regiment with six batteries and over 800 enlisted men. Interest in the regiment is centered in athletes to a great extent and the men have teams in football, baseball and track sports in season. The outfit is now under orders to proceed to Hawaii because men with less than six months military service and men with dependents must be transferred there are many vacancies at present, particularly for bandmen and for men with musical instruments. Service of the proper calibre to make non-commissioned officers. Men enlisting for this branch must arrive in Camp Grant no later than 6 p. m., Nov. 15. The following men were enlisted at the station yesterday for the 36th Infantry at Camp Devens: Samelash Kovick, 78 Cummings street; James A. Foster, 182 Central street; Alfred Norbown, 53 French street.

A special drive is being made by all recruiting stations in this district for men to join the 2nd Infantry at Camp Benning, Georgia. This is a regiment characterized by "no-guard, no fatigue, and no regrets." It is a motorized unit and has a 25,000-acre camp with good bathing eight months in the year. The camp is just 30 minutes ride from Columbus which has a 35,000 population. The 36th Infantry at Camp Devens is also offering special inducements for recruits. The recreational activities for this unit include baseball, football, basketball, bowling, pool and billiards, moving pictures and swimming. Complete courses in all studies and trades are given and a $50 bonus is paid for three years' enlistment. In the case of Lowell men to be stationed at Camp Devens it means frequent visits to this city. Those interested should inquire at the army recruiting station in Central street.

TEXTILE SCHOOL FRESHMEN INITIATED

People who happened to be in the vicinity of Merrimack square about 5 o'clock last evening were more or less startled to see a dozen young men, clad in pajamas, wearing handkerchiefs over their mouths and linked together like inmates of a correctional institution. Surrounding them and leading them to sing were 100 or more other young men.

The first contingent in pajamas were Textile school freshmen, who were being initiated by the upper classmen. The grotesque parade made its way from the Textile school in Moody street down Merrimack street to the square and here the freshmen were ordered to climb Page's clock, make a speech and then were allowed to go. The minute freedom was granted they peeled off their pajamas which had been put on over their regular clothing.

LICENSE COMMISSION
At the regular meeting of the license commissioners last night a hearing was given John Kambaras of Dunmer street, whose place of business was raided in a gambling roundup by the police a short time ago. Officers Moore and Conney presented evidence and the license commissioners put the matter over for consideration. The following permits were granted: Lodging house, Mrs. Mary Flaherty, 233 Appleton st.; Mrs. Margaret Cope, 207 Worthen st.; to sell ice cream on the Lord's day; Venus Confectionery Co., 239 Merrimack st.; common victualer, A. A. Johnson & Co., 560 Market st.; coffee house, Kyriacas M. Tsouprakakos, 623 Market st. The following petitions were tabled for further consideration: To sell ice cream on the Lord's day; Leon Turczynski, 127 Fayette st. and Louis Trudeau, 118 Chalmers st.

ENJOYABLE PARTY
The Just-a-Moment Girls' club held a very enjoyable party in Lincoln hall last night, which was well attended. The decorations of the hall were very pretty and reflected credit upon all the members of the club, who worked hard for the success of the affair. Those in direct charge were: Miss Mary Blachard, general manager; Miss Helen Mullen, assistant general manager; Miss Josephine O'Neil, floor director; Miss Mary Mullen, treasurer; Miss Theresa Gallagher, chief assistant; Miss Charlotte Favette and Miss Anastasia Dalton, aids.

Deny Sen. Penrose Has Had Relapse

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—Published reports that United States Senator Boies Penrose, who has been ill for a year, has had a relapse, were denied today by his physicians who said there was no material change in the senator's condition. Besides his other ailments the senator is suffering from neuritis which at times gives him much pain. The fact that he is not seeing visitors at this time is believed to have given rise to reports that his condition is worse. He is preparing to return to the senate after an absence since last November. He has leased a large apartment in Washington.

necessary owing to an advance in the cost of fuel and other supplies. It was unanimously voted to request the municipal council for an additional appropriation of $60,000.

On motion of Dr. Rooney it was voted to defer action on petitions for salary increases from the Lowell Teachers' organization and the janitors' association.

It was explained that both these organizations desire to have delegations meet the school committee before the salary question is adjusted. Delay was considered advisable also because of the present condition of the department's finances.

It was voted to pay the history teachers of the high school $240 for their services from the present time to the end of the year for the extra work they are doing.

The committee adjusted a number of salaries as follows:
Miss Esther M. Downing to receive $5 per evening for services at the Evening Vocational school and $1800 per year for services at the day school; Miss Flora F. Common, $1100 per year; Miss Ida J. Flint, $1640; Miss Grace E. Stevens, $1400; F. A. Thompson, $1400; Miss Eva M. Lantagne, $600; John H. Gillick, $2000; and Miss Jessie M. Hagar, $150.

Miss Mary E. King was appointed clerk for the continuation school at a salary of $1000 and Miss Katherine L. Carmichael, clerk in the superintendent's office, at the same salary.

Piano classes to be conducted in various schools of the city after regular school hours, under the direction of Miss Inez Field Damon were approved by the committee, on recommendation of the superintendent.

On motion of Mr. Markham it was voted to fix the salaries of teachers and the principal of the Bartlett Junior high school system at $50 in excess of the regular salary school schedule. Mr. Markham said that the teachers in this school work an extra half hour each day.

The salaries of temporary teachers in the high school were advanced from $1 to $5 per day. Supt. Molloy said that permanent substitutes in the elementary schools have been approved $5 per day and it is only fair that high school teachers should get at least as much.

Vocational School Survey

The committee voted to accept the report of R. C. Small, director of the division of vocational education of the state board, on his survey of the Lowell Vocational school and to extend him a vote of thanks for the satisfactory manner in which the survey was made. The report, in a condensed form, was as follows:

Day Vocational School

The school is organized and carried on essentially in accordance with the theory outlined by the state board of education. Very much progress has been made in the Lowell school in working out and adapting the theory and practice set forth in the published state requirements.

The growth and progress of the Boys Vocational school has made evident the desirability of a location directly on a car line so that pupils living in widely separated parts of the community may reach it readily. This is not only true as regards the day pupils, but is an important matter when we consider those adult pupils who must reach the school every evening in the week except Sunday, for 20 weeks in the regular season. In the early development of vocational school instruction it was assumed that the practical shop work in the different departments of the vocational school would obviate the necessity of organized social or athletic activities such as are found desirable and necessary in other secondary schools. The separation of vocational school pupils into different trade groups makes more necessary the encouragement of school athletics and common social meetings as an outlet for that "gang impulse" so prominent in boys of that age, and which otherwise would function to divide the school into competitive and contentious trade groups. The need, therefore, of sufficient room around the building for physical exercise and athletic activities of a serious character, that should have serious consideration. The Lowell Vocational school (boys' day and men's evening) is housed in an old, nondescript building, poorly lighted and badly arranged for good instruction purposes. The day classes work under a handicap of insufficient light, partially relieved by the use of artificial light. Classes are being conducted in separate groups in different rooms under the same instructors, at the same time, and the whole atmosphere of the plant is unbusinesslike and not in keeping with even average requirements.

The new addition, while absolutely necessary as additional space to care for the growth of the school, had to be so placed as to reduce the natural lighting in the original rooms, materially. Even with the added space, there is no room in the building large enough for a general assembly, and no space in the building or on the premises for setting up exercise, or any other athletic activities where the pupils come together in one group.

A new building, properly planned should be provided, in it larger classes could be handled efficiently, much better instruction could be given and the instructors would be able to make the school much more attractive to these pupils who should take advantage of the desirable opportunity which the city there offers.

The type of school building which past experience has indicated as most desirable is one with a head section of approved school construction, with single wings running back from each end, leaving in center a court, best suited for heating plant, coal, car and bicycle storage. These wings should be of factory construction and the whole building two stories in height. All shops should have separate entrances, and the assembly hall of ample size, should be on the main entrance on the

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

As to Equipment

The improvement of equipment in the shops at the Lowell school has not kept pace with the improvement in instruction, the broadening of the opportunities offered for trade extension training, or with the improvement in the teaching staff. The limited equipment in the machine shop is in practical use six nights each week in the winter, an evidence of commendable effort to use effectively all available resources. New and additional equipment is needed in the electrical, automobile repair, and machinist departments.

As to Courses of Study

Some very creditable progress has been made in getting on file, written outlines covering the principles and operations, in the trades taught. These outlines are used to check up the pupils' progress in his training, and to see that no essential step in his progress has been overlooked.

The matter of some co-operative part-time arrangement, proposed by government officials, and which was the subject of conference between the B. & M. railroad officials and Superintendent Molloy will undoubtedly come up again in the near future. This seems to me an added incentive for making the continued growth of this school possible.

Methods of Instruction

The methods of instruction are those set forth by the state board. Steady improvement has been noticed in the methods of instruction followed by the staff of teachers. The school staff should be commended for its substantial progress in this particular.

Qualifications of Teachers

Under Mr. Fisher's control there has been steady improvement in the personnel of the teaching staff, and all instructors show growth and progress, in both material for, and methods of teaching; the staff meets with the approval of the department.

Conditions of Admission

The statutory conditions of admission have been followed.

Employment of Pupils

This is satisfactory to the department. Records and account of progress are properly kept.

Expenditures of Money

The financial records setting forth the amount of reimbursement are kept in a commendable manner. In view of the especially unsatisfactory location and the particular handicap due to some of the equipment, the director of this school and faculty should be commended for the type of educational opportunity which has been afforded. We present to the Lowell officials as our opinion that the available resources have been made the most possible of.

Evening Industrial School

Such references as have been made to the factors in the preceding comment on the day school, which has a bearing upon the evening school are repeated. We will make, however, the following special comment relative to the evening school:

Location

Special consideration should be given to locating this school so as to make it easily accessible for evening school pupils.

In a very commendable effort to make the limited equipment in the machine department answer for the extension training desired by the local machinists, classes in machine shop practice were conducted six nights each week last winter and the attendance was remarkably regular in spite of the unusually severe weather. The special classes conducted for B. & M. shop men who came two evenings each week from 6 p. m. to 9 p. m. is further evidence of the value placed on this opportunity by employers and employees.

The Lowell Day Household Arts School

1. Control. Control is by the school committee.

2. Organization. The school is well organized with plans for vocational, practical and theory work following closely the theory outlined above.

3. Location. In the main satisfactory. As the school grows further accommodations will be necessary.

4. Equipment. Additional equipment, certain items of which have been secured since September, 1920, is necessary to meet the needs of this larger group. The toilet facilities are inadequate and unsatisfactory. This equipment should be asked for and secured from time to time as the necessity appears.

5. Courses of Study. They follow closely the theory outlined above. They are satisfactory and adequate the quantity and quality of work conform to the state's policies and standards.

6. Methods of Instruction. The methods of instruction are satisfactory. Emphasis is placed upon home project work. Every effort is being made to carry out the aim of the school as established.

7. Qualifications of Teachers. The teaching force is satisfactory. Each year each member has done some special piece of work for professional improvement. The majority of these instructors have satisfactorily completed the state's course in the theory and practice of teaching in vocational schools. The salaries of the vocational staff should be consistent with service rendered. In certain cases it would seem this is not the case at the present time.

If you want to get safe relief from catarrh, cold in the head or from an irritating cough in the shortest time, breathe Hyomei.

It will clean out your head in two minutes and allow you to breathe freely, awake or asleep, or money refunded.

Hyomei should end a cold in one day, and relieve you of disgusting sniffles, hawking, spitting and offensive breath in a week.

Hyomei is made chiefly from eucalyptus, a soothing, healing, germ-killing antiseptic that comes from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, where catarrh, asthma and other bronchial troubles are seldom known.

Hyomei is pleasant and easy to breathe. Just pour a few drops into the Hard Rubber Inhaler, use as directed and relief is almost certain.

are admitted under the statutory provisions. In spite of decreased membership during the war, the school has shown progress and no lack of strength, as is evidenced by the unusually large membership of the current year.

9.—Employment of Pupils. Employment of pupils is satisfactory and the records of such employment are satisfactorily kept. At times it has seemed that Miss Downing has been called upon unduly to attend to work of a purely clerical nature. Adequate clerical assistance should be furnished to completely keep records and progress.

10. Expenditures of Money. The official records upon which reimbursement is based are satisfactorily kept.

Both Mr. Fisher and Miss Downing should be commended for their determined efforts for the success of this school and the city of Lowell should be congratulated upon the satisfactory progress which the school has made.

Evening Practical Arts School

Evening Practical Arts work under the direct supervision of Miss Downing with three assistants is well organized. These three assistants employed on a per diem basis visit the classes at least once each week, reporting to Miss Downing. The Evening Practical Arts work has grown so rapidly during the past two years that additional clerical assistance is greatly needed at this time. In 1919-1920, four new centers were opened with special effort to reach the foreign-speaking people of Lowell. Miss Downing should be commended for the success of her efforts in tying this Evening Practical Arts training with Americanization work. Splendid work was done with several groups of non-English speaking women last year.

The size of classes, persistency of attendance, the quantity and quality of work conform to the state's policies and standards. Over 1000 women are enrolled this year. We are glad to note that, in accordance with a previous recommendation, space is provided at every center for storing the work of the pupils.

Commendable efforts have been made to meet the growing demands of rapidly increasing evening work. There is, however, a great need for full length and hand mirrors both for the dressmaking and millinery classes. Certain additions to the small equipment are necessary to meet the needs of the increased enrollment. The equipment is for the most part adequate.

Courses of study used in the evening practical arts classes are carefully worked out and adapted by Miss Downing and her teachers to meet the needs of the particular groups.

A well qualified group of trades-women, the majority of whom have completed at least half of the state's training course for such teaching, are using satisfactory methods of instruction. Mr. Fisher and Miss Downing have co-operated in every way to further the improvement of this teaching service by finding excellent tradeswomen for training classes. The evening teachers' pay of $3.50 per night is an inducement to superior tradeswomen.

In 1919-1920 some Evening Practical Arts classes were for the first time conducted during the day. This extension of the work is admirable and should be encouraged.

Unit history cards are accurately and carefully kept.

Mr. Fisher and Miss Downing should be commended for the steady and splendid progress made in this Evening Practical Arts work.

Conclusion

The foregoing statement covers the situation in a general way. Many minor matters could be touched upon, but these did not seem to deserve a place in the report of this character. This report is respectfully submitted for your consideration.

AN IMPORTANT RULING

Men Discharged From Draft
Camps Because of Physical
Defects Not Entitled to Aid

(Special to the Sun.)
BOSTON, Nov. 10.—Men who were discharged from draft camps, because of physical defects, are not entitled to the benefits of state or military aid. This, in substance, is the ruling of Attorney General J. Weston Allen in response to a request from Richard E. Flynn, commissioner of state aid and pensions. A large number of applications for aid, now pending before the commissioner, must be dismissed as a result of the ruling.

In his opinion the attorney general first takes up the matter of state aid. After quoting the law governing state aid payments, he says:

"The act provides, first, that the applicant must be receiving a pension or compensation for disability incurred in such service; second, that he must have been mustered into such service while an inhabitant of the city or town, the commonwealth and actually residing therein; and third, must have been honorably discharged from such service by reason of illness or disability incurred therein."

"The first and second conditions are purely questions of fact; the third condition is a question of law. It is only when the applicant has been honorably discharged, but this must have been by reason of illness or disability incurred in the service. If all of these conditions do not exist, then the individual's right to state aid falls and this irrespective of the fact that a discharge from the draft is regarded by the adjutant general of the army as a discharge from the service."

"Consequently, I am of opinion that your inquiry, directed toward the right to state aid by one who has received a discharge from the draft, having been rejected because of existing physical defects, must be answered in the negative."

With respect to applications for military aid, the attorney general says:

"Whatever may be the interpretation as to whether or not a discharge from the draft is comprehended within the words 'honorably discharged,' within the meaning of the law, the real question is whether such a man is not entitled to military aid because such physical disqualification was not incurred in the service."
"I am of the opinion that one who was drafted, inducted and summoned to a cantonment or camp, and there, upon examination, was found physically unfit for service by reason of illness or disability then existing, and not incurred in the service, is not entitled to military aid." HOYT.

ARMISTICE AND ST. MARTIN'S DAY

Tomorrow, November 11, besides being Armistice day, the anniversary of the signing of the peace pact, is also St. Martin's day. Not only indicating the time, two years ago, when the last shot was fired in Europe, and guns were dropped, and the United States relaxed from its determined war efforts, the day carries, with it many homely superstitions handed down from the middle ages.

They say that if Martinmas is bright and sunny or if the trees still retain their leaves on that day, then there will be a very cold and severe winter. If there is a frost before Martinmas the winter will be mild and if the geese stop on the ice at Martinmas she will stick in the mud at Christmas.

So, according to all this tomorrow will be pretty much of a water-vase. Another to superstitious is that if a farmer has not finished his field work at Martinmas he will bury his wife before the winter is over. All of us, however, should be optimists on this point. Some of us have no wives to bury. St. Martin's day is one which arouses many pleasant and pleasant memories in the minds of our French and Scotch people or their descendants who have inherited wealth of tradition.

According to the Roman calendar November 11 is given over to St. Martin who was bishop of Tours and Poitiers in the fourth century and whose piety and virtuous career attracted large crowds from all parts of Gaul. So great was his patronage that he

The Finest Pie Homes ever serve—Real Lemon Pie

The queen of pies is lemon pie, yet how rarely people serve it.

The home-made pie takes time and trouble, so lemon pie days come rather far apart.

Now the makers of Jiffy-Jell are making Jiffy-Pie. This is real lemon pie at its best, made to serve easily and quickly.

It comes in a package, almost ready-made. The sugar is there, the egg yolk, powdered milk, corn starch and tapioca.

The lemon essence—made from lemon peel—comes sealed in a glass bottle, so its freshness can't escape.

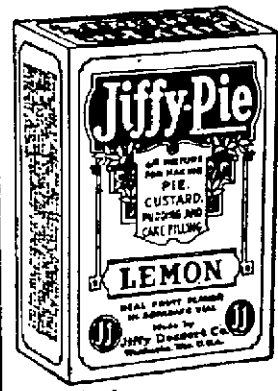

Add water, cook a little, and you have a lemon pie filler such as only few can make.

The users of Jiffy-Jell will know it must be right. That fruity dessert, with its flavors in vials, has won millions by its quality.

The same experts make this Jiffy-Pie. The same ideals are behind it. If you like one, you will like the other.

Learn this better way to make good lemon pie. The pies you make cost more than this. They take much time. And you have rare skill if you make an equal pie.

Let this way help you serve them easier and oftener.

PRES-ELECT HARDING GOES TARPOON FISHING

POINT ISABEL, Tex., Nov. 10.—(By the Associated Press)—President-elect Harding went tarpon fishing yesterday, and although his prize catch got away after a 45-minute tussle, he liked the sport so well that he stayed out from morning until nightfall.

It was the breaking of a troll line tangled in the wreckage of an old wharf that lost him his fight with the biggest fish he ever had hooked, a tarpon described by his companions as measuring more than six feet. The president-elect's boat had pulled close to shore, and the sea giant was showing signs of giving up when the line caught fast and snapped. He had several other bites, but came home empty handed, favored on the first day of his vacation by clear, hot weather.

REGISTRATION SESSIONS
The election commissioners registered 25 men and 16 women desiring to vote at the city primaries this year at the two registration sessions held at city hall yesterday. ### NAVY MEN, TAKE NOTICE!

November 17 will be the last day for navy men who have been out of the service more than four months and less than one year to re-enlist and retain their continuous service and receive a bonus of four months' pay. The new rates of pay are as follows: Chief petty officer, $126; C.P.O., acting appointment, $98; P.O., 1c, $84; P.O., 2c, $82; P.O., 3c, $80; seaman, $54; seaman, 2c, $48; fireman, 1c, $40; fireman, 2c, $34; fireman, 3c, $30. Seven dollars is added to each of these for the first re-enlistment. Herman Crockett, 313 Moody street, and Joseph H. Dubo, 55 Salem street, were signed up at the station this morning for naval service.

IN POLICE COURT

In contrast to the large list of offenders before the court yesterday morning, only four cases were called before Judge Wright this morning. An employee of the local postoffice department was ordered turned over to the United States court in Boston, a charge of being a stubborn girl entered against a minor of Centralville was dismissed, and complaints of larceny against two schoolboys, arrested by Inspector Walsh, were put over to the juvenile session, today. The probation officer released one first offender for drunkenness.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

A Buick roadster, license number 10137 Rhode Island, was recovered in Paige street last evening by Lieut. David Petrie. The car was stolen in Providence a few days ago. It had been parked in Paige street for over a day. A telegram from the police of Providence instructed the local department to hold the auto for them.

Fat That Shows Soon Disappears Prominent fat that comes and stays where it is not needed is a burden; a hindrance to activity, and a curb upon pleasure. Many forms of Adipose tissue have been advanced, such as dieting, hard work, excessive exercise, etc., all of which are either unpleasant, or dangerous. The latest, more modern and pleasant way to get rid of fat is to take Fat That Shows Soon Disappears. These little tablets are as effective and as harmless as the famous Marmola Prescription from which they take their name. To get rid of fat at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week, simply take one of these little tablets after each meal and at bedtime. The fat will be reduced, and you will be able to wear the clothes you want to wear. No wonder or flabbiness will remain to show where the fat came off. They are for sale by all druggists at $1 for a box of 10 tablets. If you prefer to have them come to you direct from the manufacturer, send amount to the Marmola Co., 57 Garfield Building, Detroit, Mich. WAKEFIELD, Mass., Nov. 10.—The New England potato crop suffered a shrinkage of about six per cent, and was reduced in quality as the result of rot during October, according to the report today by V. A. Samuels, field agent at Wakefield, of the United States Department of Agriculture. The crop is now estimated at 34,500,000 bushels, compared with the five year average of 36,750,000 bushels, and 35,950,000 in 1919. The net available yield in the Wakefield region is estimated at 180 bushels per acre, with production at 16,500 bushels, a loss of nearly a million bushels in October. The total Maine crop is reported reduced to 21,200,000 bushels from 23,125,000 estimated last month and a five year average of 23,305,000.

GRAECO-ROMAN BATHS IN SENATE WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Graeco-Roman baths of the United States Senate, installed nearly eight years ago but never put into service, are now being cleared of the cobwebs and stains of time, and will be in shape to offer their luxuries of steam, plunge, shower and electricity to the members of the new senate when it convenes. The baths in the rear of the Senate Chamber, which were named after the baths in the Roman Colosseum, were the scene of a debate when the power of administration last swung from republicanism to democracy and as a result the baths, installed in the then new senate office building, were shorn of their expensive equipment, bereft of their marble slabs, Turkish rugs and steam proof tables and chairs were turned over to government hospitals and only the marble shells and nickel fittings left in place. Now, however, the baths are coming back, but under a new plan. Members of the senate themselves will pay a large part of the operating expenses, and a special unofficial committee has taken charge of the assessments, which will be levied against each senator in proportion to the service he exacts.

FRANKLIN PENNY Peter Johnson, of 93 Chelmsford street, is another Lowell man who owns a Franklin penny, one of the first coins authorized by congress. Mr. Johnson found the coin in the rear of Conway's stable in Smith street, where city men were excavating for the laying of a drainage pipe about two years ago. Mr. Johnson says the value of the penny, according to a book published by a New York firm which deals in rare coins, varies from $35 to $100, according to the condition of the coin.

Lowell and Woburn Friends

Tender Testimonial to Brilliant Polo Player

"Harkins night" was observed at the Crescent rink last night when Lowell and Woburn friends of Capt. Ferdie Harkins of the Hartford polo club, packed the hall and tendered him a testimonial that marked an epoch in the history of the game. The testimonial came between the periods of one of the best polo games of the season, which Lowell won from Hartford by the score of 7 to 2.

Harkins played with Lowell for three seasons, during which time he brought two championships to the Spindle City, and his brilliant playing and his gentlemanly conduct endeared him to thousands of fans here. While playing in Lowell, Harkins' modesty prevented any event being staged in his honor, but this year when he was assigned to another city, local friends got busy and arranged last night's affair.

When the announcement was made of the plans for the reception, Woburn friends asked to be allowed to assist in the undertaking and their request was granted. Committees from both cities were appointed, and they worked in co-operation and all were aided by the remarkable success of the event.

Harkins was born in Woburn and the city certainly paid him a glowing tribute last night. Over a hundred and seventy-five Woburnites, including their popular and efficient mayor, Mr. Thomas J. Golden, came to assist him in the reception. They occupied a special section and made their presence known many times during the evening.

The only disappointing feature of the reception was the failure of Mayor Thompson and members of the local municipal council to attend. All accepted the invitation and the mayor had agreed to make the presentation in behalf of the Lowell committee. However, he was unable to be present. Rep. Thomas J. Corbett was called upon and he filled the bill admirably.

The first and second periods between the Lowell and Woburn teams, when William H. Sullivan, secretary of the local testimonial committee, was present, and the Lowell team, led by Sullivan, extended a greeting to the Woburn team, who were led by Mayor Golden. The mayor paid a tribute to Capt. Harkins, who was only as a polo player but as a man, and said that he was proud to see that his many good qualities, his character, his gentlemanly conduct, and his sportsmanship, were all present in the person of a man who had taken the big part he has taken in the

CHANNEY AND JACKS ARE CLASSY BOXERS

In securing Andy Channey of Baltimore to oppose Freddy Jacks in the main bout of the initial local boxing show under the new law, the President A.A. has made a tenstrike and the attraction is worthy of a banner crowd tomorrow night.

Channey is in perfect condition as he has trained for a bout with Vincent Miller in the draft of the last Monday night, but called off when Martin met with an injury.

Many regard Channey as Johnny Kibane's logical successor as featherweight champion. He has boxed Kibane twice and some of the closings of the bout gave him the edge. He has also defeated such prominent performers as Bobby Josephs, Benny Valgren, Al Shubert, Jocky Fox and many others.

Jacks, while never having appeared here, was seen in action by many local boxing fans at Lawrence this summer in one of Johnny Gully's shows. He put out a local fighter, Harry Dick Brown, and while he lost this decision, he left the ring amid vigorous applause.

mission, was a visitor at the office of the board of health today to make arrangements for the infantile paralysis clinic to be held in the aldermanic chamber at city hall next Wednesday, Nov. 17, from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m.

The clinic to be held here on that date promises to be one of the largest ever held in Lowell. Not only children who are afflicted with the disease but

Dr. Arthur T. Legg, director of the infantile paralysis clinic of the Boston Children's hospital, will have charge of the clinic for children here and Dr. H. C. Low, who directs the clinic at

A corps of 14 workers from the Harvard commission, including secretaries, nurses, muscle testers, etc., will come to Lowell on the date of the clinic. There have been 16 new cases of the disease reported in Lowell since the beginning of the year and several deaths.

deaths have occurred. Miss Norton feels Lowell among the cities heavily hit by the present epidemic, Springfield, Haverhill, Lynn, Newburyport and Boston being among the others. Agent Francis J. O'Leare of the board of health lays stress on the fact that any family which is now under quarantine or which will be when the clinic is held here should not allow any of its members to attend the clinic.
